The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints, 1968 British Books, 1910 Religious Transformation in Modern Asia, 2015-02-24 This volume explores the religious transformation of each nation in modern Asia. When the Asian people who were not only diverse in culture and history but also active in performing local traditions and religions experienced a socio-political change under the wave of Western colonialism, the religious climate was also altered from a transnational perspective. Part One explores the nationals of China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Korea, and Japan, focusing on the manifestations of Japanese religion, Chinese foreign policy, the British educational system in Hong Kong in relation to Tibetan Buddhism, the Korean women of Catholicism, and the Scottish impact in late nineteenth-century Korea. Part Two approaches South Asia through the topics of astrology, the works of a Gujarati saint, and Himalayan Buddhism. The third part is focused on the conflicts between indigenous religions and colonialism, Buddhism and Christianity, Islam and imperialism, and Hinduism and Christianity in Southeast Asia. The Role of Religious Culture for Social Progress in East Asian Society Juan Francisco Martinez, Kwangsuk Yoo, Brian Byrd, 2023-03-29 Religious culture is an important keyword for understanding rapidly changing East Asian society, especially China, Japan, and Korea. Despite the common influence of Confucian culture on these countries, each has shown a very different pattern of social progress in modern and postmodern times. Although surveys report a low ratio of religious identification and membership in this region, people in this area are religious in a different way from Western societies, and religious culture is closely related to political, economic, and social subsystems. A real force of changing East Asian society is not only political powers or economic classes but also an invisible culture based on religious belief and practice. This book focuses on the dynamic relationship between social progress and religious culture, organization, or movements in each society since 1945. The fifty-first (-136th) annual report of the Religious tract society, Religious tract society, 1882 The State Religion of Ancient China, Lester James Bilsky, 1975 Negotiating Religious Gaps, John Lai, 2024-11-01 This book constitutes a pioneering and comprehensive text in context study of the translation of Christian tracts from English into Chinese by Protestant missionaries in nineteenth-century China. It focuses on the large body of hitherto widely neglected Protestant Chinese books and tracts, putting the translated texts into their socio-political, cultural, and ideological contexts. This integrated approach proves to be fruitful and insightful in describing and explaining actual practices of translation or translation norms. The book addresses the central issue of how original texts were selected, translated, and presented by Protestant missionaries under the patronage of various missionary institutions in order to achieve their specific agendas. Based on primary materials and rare archival documents, this extensive survey of the corpus of Chinese Christian literature fills a significant gap in the evaluation of Protestant missions to China, especially with regard to the role of the Religious Tract

Society RTS Moreover the contributions of Chinese collaborators are examined in detail to achieve a more balanced view in accessing the role of missionary translators The book also sheds light on the sophisticated procedures and strategies of cross cultural translation particularly on the facet of religious translation in the Chinese translation tradition John T P Lai provides a wealth of information about the development of Protestant religious publishing in late imperial China Full of interesting data and illustrations this work should find an audience with church historians and mission scholars Joseph Tse Hei Lee in Sino Western Cultural Relations Journal Fields of interest Religious Studies Translation Studies History of Christianity in Modern China Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Translation Protestant Missions and the Chinese Context Chapter 2 Institutional Patronage The Ideological Control of Tract Societies Chapter 3 Teamwork Translation The Invisibility of Chinese Collaborators Chapter 4 Christian Tracts in Chinese Costume A Critical Survey Chapter 5 Rewriting the Children s Message The Peep of Day Chapter 6 Domesticating for Chinese Literati The Anxious Inquirer Conclusion Appendices Appendix A Protestant Missionary Publishers and Societies in China Appendix B Protestant Missionaries and Chinese Translators Appendix C Chinese Translations of Christian Literature 1812 1907 Appendix D Most Well Received Christian Literature in Chinese 1812 1907 Appendix E Favell L Mortimer s Works in Chinese Appendix F William Muirhead s Works in Chinese Bibliography Index

Shaanxi Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31 This book is the seventh in Paul Hattaway s series The China Chronicles In the series he draws on more than thirty five years of experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades the largest revival in the history of Christianity Shaanxi is the cradle of Chinese civilization where the compass paper printing and gunpowder were invented It was the southern terminus of the ancient Silk Road and the first place in China to receive the gospel Hattaway shows that Christians were in China centuries before the assumed earliest date of AD 635 During the missionary era there was slow growth but today Shaanxi is home to more than three million followers of Christ As storm clouds of persecution gather worldwide believers can find encouragement in these bold testimonies of standing up for Christ in the face of severe hardship Hattaway here delights in the wonderful things God has done for often unlikely people and the dedication that flowed from their transformed lives
