Yu, Elisa Oreglia, 2024-02-22. Featuring leading scholars on Chinese internets in the plural from around the world, this interdisciplinary book explores the changing digital landscape in China and provides insight into contemporary Chinese techno geopolitics. Policymakers, commentators and the mass media have widely viewed Chinese tech as a unitary and statist monolith. This predominant view, however, is not only incomplete but has become increasingly obsolete. Using a pluralist and multilayered approach to analysing Chinese techno geopolitics, this volume addresses the following important questions: Who are the key players in Chinese internets today? What role do government agencies, state-owned enterprises, private companies and individual netizens play? How do Chinese internets operate at the global, regional, national or local levels? How are external world or regional events influencing or being influenced by geopolitical patterns within China? The Geopolitics of Chinese Internets will be a key resource for policymakers, scholars, researchers and practitioners interested in Chinese techno geopolitics and the changing digital landscape in China. This book was originally published as a special issue of Information Communication Society. Crimes of the Powerful and the Contemporary Condition Adam Lynes, James Treadwell, Kyla Bavin, 2024-06-24. The ultimate expression of power is the ability to act beyond the confines of law with contemporary society enabling elite groups to wield panoramic power. From the murderous crimes of the corporate giants that provide us with life's luxuries and necessities to the data-gathering activities of media and educational institutions, the authors offer new thinking on damaging structures of power and privilege. This accessible book provides a comprehensive understanding of elite corporate wrongdoing and the late capitalist society that enables harm, considering both how we got into this mess and how we get out of it. Data Grab Ulises A. Mejias, Nick Couldry, 2024-02-08. Your life online is their product. In the past, colonialism was a landgrab of natural resources, exploitative labour and private property from countries around the world. It promised to modernise and civilise but actually sought to control. It stole from native populations and made them sign contracts they didn't understand. It took resources just because they were there. Colonialism has not disappeared; it has taken on a new form. In the new world order, data is the new oil. Big Tech companies are grabbing our most basic natural resources: our data, exploiting our labour and connections and repackaging our information to control our views, track our movements, record our conversations and discriminate against us. Every time we unthinkingly click 'Accept on Terms and Conditions' we
