This collection explores key themes in the contemporary critique of political economy in honour of the work and practice of Silvia Federici and George Caffentzis, two of the most significant contemporary theorists of capitalism and anti-capitalism whose contributions span half a century of struggle, crisis, and debate. Drawing together a collection of essays that assess Federici and Caffentzis's contributions, offering critical and comradely reflections and commentary that build on their scholarship, this volume acts as a guide to their work while also taking us beyond it. The book is organised around five key themes: revolutionary histories, reproduction, money, and value, commons, and struggles. Ultimately, the book shines light on the continuing relevance of Caffentzis and Federici's work in the twenty-first century for understanding anti-capitalism, primitive accumulation, and the commons, feminism, reproductive labour, and Marx's value theory.
