Reading for Today, 5 Jim Beers, 1987

The Paraprofessional's Essential Guide to Inclusive Education Peggy A. Hammeken, 2009. A well-designed reference and learning tool for paraprofessionals. The valuable templates can easily be reproduced and used with students. Renee Bernhardt, Special Education Teacher, Johnston Elementary School, Woodstock, GA. This is a great guide. I have already used excerpts for an informal paraprofessional workshop in my school. The paraeducators thought that it covered all the areas of concern that they have. They couldn't believe how many ready-to-use ideas it had. Dawne Dragonetti, Special Education Teacher and Instructional Coach, Center School, Stow, MA. Hundreds of strategies that promote success for struggling students in inclusive classrooms. Paraprofessionals are essential in helping students with special needs access the general education curriculum and receive the individualized attention they need. This updated edition of Inclusion: An Essential Guide for the Paraprofessional answers paraprofessionals' most common questions and provides extensive strategies for all content areas. Developed as a daily hands-on working manual, the completely revised edition includes a new chapter on reading, expanded chapters throughout, additional activities for classroom use, more than 75 new strategies, and more than 50 forms available on a CD-ROM for easy reproduction. Ideal for experienced or novice paraprofessionals, this volume includes techniques for supporting students in reading, spelling, language, and mathematics and covers topics such as Inclusive practices, Policies, procedures, and schedules, Accommodations and modifications for the classroom, Communication and organizational skills, Peer tutoring, Behavior management, Confidentiality and reporting. Also an appropriate handbook for working with general education students who may need additional help to experience academic success, this resource provides the ideal support for all paraprofessionals working in the general education classroom.

Reading in a Second Language Xi Chen, Vedran Dronjic, Rena Helms-Park, 2015-11-19. Reading in a Second Language offers a comprehensive survey of the phenomenon and process of reading in a second language with graduate and upper-level undergraduate students in second language acquisition, psycholinguistics, and applied psychology as its primary audience. The book explores reading processes from a number of complementary standpoints, integrating perspectives from fields such as first and second language reading, second language acquisition, linguistics, psycholinguistics, and cognitive neuroscience. The first half examines major factors in second language reading: types of scripts, the cognitive and neural substrates of reading, metalinguistic awareness, word recognition, language transfer, and lexical knowledge. The second part of the book discusses the social and educational contexts in which reading
