The New Global Universities Bryan Penprase, Noah Pickus, 2023-12-05 Reimagining higher education around the world lessons from the creation of eight new colleges and universities in Africa Asia the Middle East and North America Higher education is perpetually in crisis buffeted by increasing costs and a perceived lack of return on investment campus culture that is criticized for stifling debate on controversial topics and a growing sense that the liberal arts are outmoded and irrelevant Some observers even put higher education on the brink of death The New Global Universities offers a counterargument telling the story of educational leaders who have chosen not to give up on higher education but to reimagine it The book chronicles the development and launch of eight innovative colleges and universities in Africa Asia the Middle East and North America describing the combination of intellectual courage entrepreneurial audacity and adaptive leadership needed to invent educational institutions today The authors both academic leaders who have been involved in launching ventures similar to the ones described offer a unique inside perspective on these efforts Bryan Penprase and Noah Pickus show how the founders of new colleges and universities establish distinctive brands in a sector dominated by centuries old institutions secure creative sources of funding attract stellar faculty and students and design appealing curriculums and campuses all while managing tradeoffs and setbacks balancing local needs and global aspirations and wrestling with challenges to academic freedom These new educational institutions include two universities in Asia and the Middle East built by well established American parent institutions others in Africa and North America that offer holistic reform from the ground up and leverage new technologies to lower costs and still others that adapted the American liberal arts model to Asian and African contexts Their experiences offer lessons for future founders of new universities and for those who want to renew and rejuvenate existing ones

Douyin, TikTok and China's Online Screen Industry Chunmeizi Su, 2023-09-22 TikTok has drawn attention from all over the world Even if you have never used it before you would still be familiar with its name Many people have assumed that it is a US generated platform and normally awed at its real origin a Chinese born and operated platform a sister or parallel platform of Douyin Because of the short video platform TikTok and also its dispute with the US government people have started to paying attention to what is really happening and changing in China Two questions that hang over everyone's mind seem to be why China And why TikTok This book attempted to answer the question of why short video platforms such as TikTok the most popular made in China product of all the Chinese digital platforms became a significant competitor on the global stage This book explores the reasons behind the rise of short video platforms in China with a focus on the sudden and unexpected success of TikTok and its parallel platform Douyin Beginning with the historical development of China's online screen industry the book goes on to investigate the ICT industry its business models and impact on the screen industry to unfold the reasons behind the domestic popularity of Douyin It draws on a spectrum of sources including policy documents industry reports and expert analysis which is supplemented by interviews with key people in the field It traces the changing dynamics of the Chinese online screen ecology and shows how a mixture of technological industrial and cultural factors contributed to the proliferation of short video platforms in China This engaging and topical book will be ideal reading for students and scholars of media and communication studies platform studies and political economy studies Hoodwinked Mara Einstein,2025-02-04 Powerhouse marketing expert narrator of Netflix s Buy Now documentary shows how today s biggest brands are using cult like tactics to capture not just your wallet but your devotion From viral leggings to must have apps Dr Mara Einstein exposes the hidden parallels between cult manipulation and modern marketing strategies in this eye opening investigation Drawing from her unique background as both a former MTV marketing executive and a respected media studies professor she reveals how companies weaponize psychology to transform casual customers into devoted followers This groundbreaking book uncovers How social media platforms use anxiety inducing algorithms to keep you trapped in a purchase panic cycle The secret playbook marketers use to create brand religions around everyday products Why even the most rational consumers fall prey to scarcity marketing and manufactured FOMO Practical strategies to break free from manipulative digital marketing tactics With compelling real world examples and insights from industry insiders Hoodwinked equips you with the knowledge to recognize and resist these sophisticated manipulation techniques Dr Einstein s expertise has been featured in The New York Times Wall Street Journal and Harvard Business Review making her the perfect guide through the maze of modern marketing manipulation Break free from the cult of consumerism discover how to make mindful choices in an increasingly manipulative digital marketplace Easy to read and such a good peek behind the curtain of for profit companies and the ways they influence and manipulate us Daniella Young author of Uncultured Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2020 Alexander W. Wiseman,2021-08-02 The Annual Review of Comparative and International Education covers significant developments in the field of comparative and international education This 2020 edition begins with a collection of discussion essays about comparative education trends and directions written by both professional and scholarly leaders The Oxford Handbook of Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Region Devesh Kapur,Lily Kong,Florence Lo,David M. Malone,2023-01-20 Since the turn of the millennium it has become clear that the Asia Pacific Region is economically the fastest growing continent in the world and is likely to remain so for some time despite the setbacks of the COVID 19 pandemic Asia Pacific s share of the world s Gross Domestic Product GDP doubled from 15 per cent to 30 per cent between 1970 and 2017 and is projected to account for half of global GDP by 2050 With South East and South Asia also growing rapidly with over half the world s population and three of the world s five largest economies Asia is soon poised to home half of the world s middle class a class that is both the driver and the product of higher education The quality of a country s system of higher education may be seen both as a gauge of its current level of national development as well as of its future economic prospects It is therefore natural that the putative Asian Century should generate interest in the region s higher education systems which on the one hand share common characteristics a fixation with credentials and engineering high technology especially among male students and business degrees while at the same time are also highly differentiated not only across countries but also within As such a better understanding of higher education achievements failings potential and structural limitations in the Asia Pacific Region is imperative This handbook presents a number of significant country case studies and documents cross cutting trends relating to among other things the trilemma faced by governments juggling competing claims of access accessible cost and quality the balance between teaching and research the links between labour markets demand and higher education supply preferred fields of study and their consequences the rise of the research university in Asia the lure of institutions of international reputation within the region new education technologies and their effects and trends in government policy within the wider region and sub regions
