This could be Latin America's Achilles heel. I personally understand that developing Leadership Management skills and Entrepreneurship takes time and that in some cases that time will be wasted but it amuses me how some companies complain about the talent and they don't take the time to develop it. They rely on employees from other companies to fill the empty spots. Companies in Latin America need to start working proactively and not reactively. Over the last 10 years economic growth averaged 4.2% and 70 million people escaped poverty. Macroeconomic stability, open trade policies and pro business investment climates have supported and will continue to support strong growth in the years to come. Crucially economic gains are being broadly shared. Latin America grew by 50 million people between 2003 and 2009, an increase of 50%. For a region long riven by wealth inequality this is a remarkable achievement. The importance of family and personal relationships also impacts the workplace. For example it is more common in Latin America to seek employment with family members, hire family members and look to the family for help in times of need. In addition many Latin Americans feel more comfortable doing business with people they know personally and developing that relationship is often considered an essential first step. Americans who try to move things along more quickly and get to the point may become frustrated and offend Latin Americans. This means that establishing business contacts and closing deals are best done in person and may take more time than is customary in the U.S. New Age Journal ,1997 Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001 ,2001

When requested for more bio data he wrote back: The real author of the Original Yoga is the Lord Siva. In the mundane world Patanjali is the prime propagator of yoga. Any other claim to authorship therefore cannot but be spurious. It is truth that matters, not the utterer of the truth. No truth ever becomes a bit truer even when repeated by the most distinguished person. Hence all genuine aspirants of yoga should be content to remain unknown and unnoticed by others.
