Hsieh went on to move Zappos headquarters to Las Vegas and personally funded a nine figure campaign to revitalize the city's historic downtown area. There he could be found living in an Airstream and chatting up the locals. But Hsieh's forays into community revival projects spun out of control as his issues with mental health and addiction ramped up, creating the opportunity for more enablers than friends to stand in his mercurial good graces. Drawing on hundreds of interviews with a wide range of people whose lives Hsieh touched, journalists Angel Au Yeung and David Jeans craft a rich portrait of a man who was plagued by the pressure to succeed but who never lost his generous spirit. Convene, 2000-02
