Chinese Global Exploration In The Pre-columbian Era: Evidence From An Ancient World Map Sheng-wei Wang, 2023-10-16 How early did the Chinese explore the world Did the Treasure Fleets led by Admiral Zheng He discover many parts of the world before Christopher Columbus While it is known that Christopher Columbus discovered America and Europe ushered in the Age of Discovery there is an ongoing debate on the unknown areas depicted in Western maps from the period and earlier There is agreement among scholars that certain areas seem to have been mapped out prior to the arrival of Western explorers Chinese Global Exploration in the Pre-Columbian Era Evidence from an Ancient World Map analyses the world's first modern map known as Kunyu Wanguo Quantu KWQ in Chinese translated as the Complete Geographical Map of All Kingdoms of the World to demonstrate evidence of Chinese global exploration in the Pre Columbian era The map of concern was first printed by Italian missionary Matteo Ricci in 1602 and has been purported to be of entirely European origin based on Ricci's former maps which he had brought to China in 1582 This book thus seeks to be transformational in presenting essential new insights on Pre Columbian world history and Chinese global exploration moving away from the norm of the studies of geography and cartography by The Age of Wars of Religion, 1000-1650 Cathal J. Nolan, 2006-04-30 The Age of Wars of Religion saw navies armies armed merchant companies and mercenaries battle one another and local potentates in many lands and along numerous shores Wars of religion were fought in and between all the major religions and civilizations from Europe to China in Africa and in the isolated Americas mixing motives of knightly idealism mercenary greed and competing claims of divine sanction This unparalleled work traces the extraordinary upheavals of the period in military technology competing theologies and civilizational change that were brought about by or impinged upon military conflict It offers nearly 2 000 discrete but cross referenced entries on cultural military religious and political history as well as geography biography and military literature Close to 2 000 entries offer detailed information on the major events places battles figures technologies and ideas one must know to begin to make sense of the past six centuries of global conflicts Though especially ferocious and intense the Wars of Reformation and Counter Reformation fought by Europeans from the 15th through 17th centuries were hardly unique in world or military history The Byzantine Empire bastion of Christian Orthodoxy staggered to the tortuous end of its long conflict with the Ottoman Empire the Great Power of the Sunni Muslim world The Ottomans in turn were still engaged in an equally ancient intra Muslim war between Sunnis and Shi'ites In India the Hindu Rajputs and Marathas and also the Sikhs organized armies around religious communities to throw off the Muslim Yoke Mughul Empire and also fought against Christian invaders from Europe As for the isolated Americas ideas of divine kingship sustained by powerful priesthoods and religious warfare also prevailed as exemplified by the Inca and Aztec empires

African Connections Peter Mitchell, 2005-01-24 From the exodus of early modern humans to the growth of African diasporas Africa has had a long and complex relationship with the outside world More than a passive vessel manipulated by external empires the African experience has been a complex mix of internal geographic environmental sociopolitical and economic factors and regular interaction with outsiders Peter Mitchell attempts to outline these factors over the long period of modern human history to find their commonalities and development over time He examines African interconnections through Egypt and Nubia with the Near East through multiple Indian Ocean trading systems through the trans Saharan trade and through more recent incursion of Europeans The African diaspora is also explored for continuities and resistance to foreign domination Commonalities abound in the African experience as do complexities of each individual period and interrelationship Mitchell's sweeping analysis of African connections place the continent in context of global prehistory and history The book should be of interest not only to Africanists but to many other archaeologists historians geographers linguists social scientists and their students
