

The peace late at night
Twinkling lights in the blackest sky
The fridge kicks on and off
It's my time now
The boys are sleeping
I get you
Piece of paper
To spend my precious time with
Make it good
Make it sexy
Make me feel like I'm heard and seen Make me feel like I'm the only woman in the world
Who gets to spend her evening with you

Bond, 2016-11-11 Gerald Bond explores the rise of a new secular identity that took place in French elite culture at the turn of the twelfth century While the period is widely recognized as pivotal and much revisionary work has been done on it Bond notes that in order to see the changes in the conception of the private secular self the focus must be shifted away from epics and saints lives the traditional targets of literary inquiry to lyric letters and marginal texts and images Such texts and images can be found at regional courts reasonably independent of the weak and limited monarchy and at schools far removed from the traditional Christian curriculum where a new and distinctly secular group contested inherited values of class gender and person and created distinct patterns and codes of dress behavior talk and pleasure Translating and using sources that for the most part have never been explored Bond examines the Bayeux Tapestry and such figures as Marbod of Rennes Baudri of Bourgueil William of Poitiers and Adela of Blois to frame a complex view of the contested reconception of the secular self and its value The Preacher's Demons Franco Mormando,1999-05 When the city was filled with these bonfires he then combed the city and whenever he received notice of some public sodomite he had him immediately seized and thrown into the nearest bonfire at hand and had him burned immediately This story of an anonymous individual who sought to cleanse medieval Paris was part of a sermon delivered in Siena Italy in 1427 The speaker the friar Bernardino 1380 1444 was one of the most important public figures of the time and he spent forty years combing the towns of Italy instructing admonishing and entertaining the crowds that gathered in prodigious numbers to hear his sermons His story of the Parisian vigilante was a recommendation Sexual deviants were the objects of relentless unconditional persecution in Bernardino s sermons Other targets of the preacher s venom were witches Jews and heretics Mormando takes us into the social underworld of early Renaissance Italy to discover how one enormously influential figure helped to dramatically increase fear hatred and intolerance for those on society s margins This book is the first on Bernardino to appear in thirty five years and the first ever to consider the preacher s inflammatory role in Renaissance social issues Constructing Chaucer G.
