has been memorized The goal of this book is to change the way the reader views prayer and to help people understand the awe inspiring love of God through these familiar prayers It is a manner in which our Lord Jesus has given us to pray and to understand the importance of this prayer that was written in the Bible May this book transform your heart and improve your relationship with God About the Author Teri Hines has been a devoted Christian for over thirty years She has a passion for writing inspirational texts that will touch the hearts of her readers She currently resides in Maryland Augustine and Literature Robert Peter Kennedy, Kim Paffenroth, John Doody, 2006-01-01 The influence of Christianity on literature has been great throughout history as has been the influence of the great Christian Augustine Augustine and Literature explores Augustine's influence on literature from the Middle Ages to the present day and discusses the implications of expressing Augustine's religious themes both in literature and in more directly theological works Prathana: Prayers of Bhakti Marga - Complete with Translations and Vedic Chants Bhakti Marga, 2018-01-31 Community Prayer is a special time in our day It is a time when we all connect to the Divine Name and Form and also to the Divine within ourselves our environment and each other This book contains the prayers and devotional chants performed every morning and evening in Bhakti Marga's international ashram known as Shree Peetha Nilaya as well as additional material used for special occasions and for individual practice We hope this prayer book connects you to the Divine within you and helps you feel connected to our unique spiritual community no matter where you may live Special feature this comprehensive edition includes English translations from the Sanskrit Poet, Mystic, Widow, Wife Hetta Howes, 2025 An invaluable reassessment of what we think we know about the daily lives of women in medieval Europe Poet Mystic Widow Wife charts the life and times of four medieval women Marie de France a poet Julian of Norwich a mystic and anchoress Christine de Pizan a widow and court writer and Margery Kempe a no good wife who all bucked convention and forged their own path Largely forgotten by modern readers these women have an astonishing amount to teach us about love marriage motherhood friendship and earning a living Through these four writers Hetta Howes engagingly reveals how everyday women lived survived and thrived in medieval times Who did they marry and why Were they expected to have children Did they ever have extramarital affairs Could they earn money and become self sufficient How did they make friends Could they be leaders What did they think about death and what about life and their place in it While in many ways the Middle Ages was a terrible time to be a woman there were areas of life that were surprisingly progressive Poet Mystic Widow Wife paints a vibrant portrait of these women their world and the ways they speak to us today Poet of the Medieval Modern Francesca Brooks, 2021 The early Middle Ages provided twentieth century poets with the material to re imagine and rework local religious and national identities in their writing Poet of the Medieval Modern focuses on a key figure within this tradition the Anglo Welsh poet and artist David Jones 1895 1974 representing the first extended study of the influence of early medieval English culture and history on Jones and his novel length late modernist poem The Anathemata 1952 Jones's second major poetic project after In Parenthesis

1937 The Anathemata fuses Jones's visual and verbal arts to write a Catholic history of Britain as told through the history of man as artist. Drawing on unpublished archival material including manuscripts, sketches, correspondence, and most significantly the marginalia from David Jones's Library, this volume reads with Jones in order to trouble the distinction between poetry and scholarship. Placing this underappreciated figure firmly at the centre of new developments in Modernist and Medieval Studies, Poet of the Medieval Modern brings the two fields into dialogue and argues that Jones uses the textual and material culture of the early Middle Ages, including Old English prose and poetry, Anglo-Latin hagiography, early medieval stone sculpture, manuscripts, and historiography, to re-envision British Catholic identity in the twentieth century. Long poem Jones returned to the English record to seek out those moments where the histories of the Welsh had been elided or erased. At a time when the Middle Ages are increasingly weaponised in far-right and nationalist political discourse, the book offers a timely discussion of how the early medieval past has been resourced to both shore up and challenge English hegemonies across modern British culture.

Southern Literature and Literary Theory Jefferson Humphries, 1992-07-01 In this stimulating collection of essays, twenty scholars apply new theoretical approaches to the fiction and poetry of southern writers ranging from Poe to Dickey, from Faulkner to Hurston. Departing from earlier traditions of southern literary scholarship, this book seeks not to create a new orthodoxy but to suggest the diversity of critical tools that can now be used to explore the literature and culture of the South. Including essays based on deconstructionist, feminist, and Marxist theory, the book features contributions from such critics as Henry Louis Gates, Harold Bloom, Fred Chappell, and Joan DeJean. Yet for all their variety, the essayists share the same central concern: We have in common, writes Jefferson Humphries, one thing that sets us apart from our elders in our conception of the South and our approach to southern literature: the basic assumption that the meaning and significance of literature is not in the immanence of the literary object or in history but in the complex ways in which the literary, the historical, and all the human sciences that study both are interrelated. Instead of simply taking the South for granted, the contributors to this volume see it as a text and an idea as something whose ideological underpinnings, complexities, and contradictions must be subjected to close reading and questioning. Southern Literature and Literary Theory represents a major effort to redefine the relationship of southern writing and the South itself to the larger world.

The Poetics of Early Russian Literature D.S. Likhachev, 2014-03-13 This translation of Likhachev's Poetika Drevnerusskoy Literatury, The Poetics of Early Russian Literature, provides a description of the basic themes of early tenth to seventeenth century Russian literature. Likhachev compares literary narrative with narrative used in the representational arts. Furthermore, Likhachev stresses the genre-based character of medieval Russian literature and shows how choice of style in medieval times depended on a genre with its own specific etiquette and how innovation was discouraged. The text contrasts medieval abstraction and modern realism as Likhachev shows how realism gradually breaks through in specific situations such as those of princely crimes. Likhachev draws contrasts in three different areas: the basic stock of symbols and comparisons used in early Russian literature with those used in modern literature artistic time in folklore and early Russian literature and artistic space in folklore and early Russian literature Likhachev traces the gradual development into modern artistic time through a comparison of the chronicle the first Russian play the seventeenth century writer Avvakum and three modern authors Goncharov Dostoevsky and Saltykov Shchedrin Finally the text gives a justification for studying early literatures This book will be invaluable for students of Russian medieval and comparative literature A Collection of Poet Pennecuik's Satires on Kirkman, &c.
