

A PARANORMAL SHIFTER ROMANCE

A man with a beard and a woman are shown in profile, facing each other in a close embrace. The background is a lush green forest. The title 'MELTED BY THE BEAR' is written in a large, stylized, green font with a jagged, branch-like texture. The author's name 'AMIRA RAIN' is written in a smaller, white, serif font at the bottom. A small illustration of a brown bear is visible on the right side of the title.

Melted Bear Amira Rain:

The Missionary and the Maharajas Hugh Tyndale-Biscoe, 2018-12-18 Cecil Tyndale Biscoe polarised opinion in early 20th India by his unconventional methods of educating Kashmiris and through them changing the social order of a society steeped in old superstitions He was a man of contradictions a Christian and a boxer a missionary who made very few converts a staunch supporter of British imperialism and a friend of Kashmir's political reformers He made enemies of the Hindu Establishment who described him as exceedingly a bad man and one too much fond of cricket but earned the respect of two successive Hindu Maharajas as well as the Muslim leader who succeeded them He was 27 when he became the Principal of the Church Missionary Society's school in Kashmir in 1890 and he left as India gained independence in 1947 His vision was of a school in action vigorously involved in the affairs and problems of the city of Srinagar to support the weak and to fight corruption wherever it occurred Under his leadership the masters and boys were engaged in fighting fires in the city saving people from drowning taking hospital patients for outings on the lakes helping women and removing the ban on the remarriage of young widows His avowed purpose was to make his students into honest fearless leaders who would serve their beloved country of Kashmir The book begins with the medieval condition of Kashmir in the nineteenth century describes the development of his unusual approach to education explores the many challenges he had to overcome including his chronic bad health his difficulties with the CMS and the opposition of the Hindu establishment and State Government and contrasts this with the speedy and enthusiastic acceptance by his young Kashmiri teachers and students of what he was offering and how together they transformed their society and prepared Kashmir for independence Tales of Geography

Rakesh Kumar, 2025-09-17 Geography is more than maps mountains and rivers It is the study of the Earth and how humans interact with it This book is written especially for high school students to help them realize why geography is not just another subject in the classroom but a vital key to understanding our world By reading this book you will learn how geography connects people places and environments shaping the past present and future of humanity Jasmine, CKK, 2024-12-18 As a child Jasmine and her family are forced to flee from their homeland They find themselves in America where her newfound freedoms lead to Jasmine being disowned by her father and homeless on the streets of Washington DC She is rescued by her knight in shining armor who marries her then whisks her away to Utah where he is employed in his family business After three children Jasmine and her husband Robert separate due to complications from his addiction to alcohol Jasmine finds herself a single mother supported by her four closest friends her in-laws and her husband's best friend who by fate lives in the spare bedroom of Jasmine's house Jasmine quickly finds herself caught up with three different men who wish to woo her to gain her affections She is forced to learn to be independent find employment and balance being a mom and her love life Just as she is beginning to make progress a death throws her back into her old life and forgotten religion forcing her to confront the one person she has tried to escape her father Full of hope Jasmine fights for the bright future she always
