A Collection of Nine Winning Favorites Lawrence Nissim, 2020-05-05 Mr Lawrence Nissim's writings focus on stressful situations in which young people find themselves in their homes in their neighborhoods and in their schools Readers may be able to identify with the characters who appear in each plot A first example rises in Befuddled the first of nine stories found in A Collection of Favorites Two high school friends have a disagreement at school They decide to meet after school at the nearby park to settle their differences At the park their discussion escalates to anger then to pushing each other Dominic is punched and falls backward smashing his head on a bench Dominic is unable to move Risky Excursion takes two twelve year olds on a bike riding adventure with some risk Mitch disobeys his mother and follows Carl to the shopping center then later finds himself in a police car A surprise ending follows In I Did It for You Todd's lunch recess at school began peacefully He simply wanted to join his friends in their daily basketball game But his practice shots were interrupted Looking across the active schoolyard he witnessed some behaviors that rekindled memories that caused him and his family much distress last summer He felt he had to cross the yard and get involved But was his decision wise The fifth story in A Collection of Favorites is Daughters Two eighth grade girls were longtime friends They were bored with their summer vacation so both of them decided to take a shopping excursion to their local mall But neither had any shopping money One of the girls felt mischievous and broke the law then encouraged her friend to copycat the behavior Their responses to each other affected a change in their relationship In David's Crisis David's parents are in a marital crisis and David thinks his father is abusing his mother Is it true or is David wrong What can a teen do about a situation such as this one Can the school help solve David and his parents issue In Fancy Jeena Jeena is being bullied in her new junior high school Four girls have been harassing her at school She tries to avoid them in the halls the cafeteria and the schoolyard One of the bullies pushes and hurts Jeena after class one day There are no witnesses to this incident What is the cause of the bullying Reader will discover at the end of each of the nine stories a short list of discussion items which will relate to the preceding presentation In the eighth of our nine stories The Eighth Grade Court Jamie's first days of sixth grade begin sadly and stressfully His dad had been killed recently in an auto accident Jamie now feels a huge emptiness every day They enjoyed close times together sharing thoughts and playing basketball An opportunity arises at school whereby Jamie is invited to play basketball with some eighth graders But the invitation leads Jamie on a questionable and scary course Mr Lawrence Nissim's ninth and final story in A Collection of Favorites is titled The Plan This tale seems appropriate for young players who participate in Little League baseball or softball Or any sport which welcomes parent participation A player's success often follows when families attend his or her games But often the actions of a significant family member will deter the development of the athlete Our main character was embarrassed by the behavior of his father during a game The player wanted to continue to play the game he loved but not with his father present Howie's plan had to be successful
