Composing the Speech Glen Earl Mills,1952 Orations, Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M. Depew, Vol. 6 (Classic Reprint) Chauncey Mitchell DePew,2015-08-08 Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 6 Senator Depew s public utterances have covered such a wide range of subjects have evidenced such marvelous versatility all possess so great merit that comparisons between those covering any particular line with another may well be omitted And yet perhaps Mr Depew s most unusual powers as an orator shine most brightly from the political platform One who has not experienced the difficulties of touring the country day after day making from twenty to thirty talks from the observation end of a railroad coach and from hastily constructed platforms on convenient street comers or in public parks and then conclude the day s labor with one or two set speeches in the evening at times also in the open air can hardly imagine the strain and fatigue endured Senator Depew has in this way participated in every presidential campaign for the past half century and in many State campaigns as well He has cheerfully met the demands of his party and the call for his return has ever been unanimous His political addresses extend from the Civil War until to day and beyond their attractiveness and charm of diction they are most valuable because they practically cover the political history of the country for the last half century Logic patriotism eloquence humor have ever characterized Senator Depew s political efforts and even those who do not agree with his sentiments have been glad to listen and to applaud He possesses the happy faculty of combining argument illustration and anecdote and sometimes even criticism in a straightforward manner but without offense and no shaft from his oratorical bow has ever rankled or festered in the bosom of an opponent no matter how sensitive he may have been The Republican Party of his State and this country owe much to Senator Depew About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged

Depew, Vol. 4 (Classic Reprint)* John Denison Champlin, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from Orations Addresses and Speeches of Chauncey M Depew Vol 4 Senator Depew served as president of the Union League Club of New York City for seven years none of his predecessors or successors having served for so many years as president of this organization It was Senator Depew's custom once a year at the annual meeting to deliver an address which under his treatment became a political review of the year not only of important events in the United States but throughout the world The earliest of these addresses was I think the first formal annual review made before the members of any club in New York City and probably in the United States These addresses read by anyone who desires to obtain a consecutive history of great world events for the period during which Senator Depew was president of the Union League Club will gratify that desire They constitute a most important and valuable historical service Senator Depew was not in the ordinary meaning of the term a club man but he was called upon by various organizations of this kind from time to time to deliver addresses until at last he became recognized by the more important clubs of the United States as an especial exponent of the opportunities and meaning of club life The addresses were of course varied as the occasion demanded For a number of years it was the custom of the Montauk Club of Brooklyn a custom which will not be discontinued as long as Senator Depew lives to receive him as its guest of honor upon his birthday His addresses upon these occasions have been of more than local club interest They have attracted attention all over the United States and have been invariably published practically in full As a member of the Transportation Club for years its president Senator Depew has delivered
