

Topics and activities for first day of orientation

The chart below summarizes the topics covered and activities scheduled for day one in our revamped nursing orientation curriculum, which places greater emphasis on active learning.

Category	Topics	Activities
Patient experience and satisfaction	• Patients with limited English proficiency • Cultural diversity • Pain management • Patient rights • Ethics • The Hospital Consumer Assessment of Healthcare Providers and Systems • Performance improvement	• Demonstration of the language program on the laptop with projection to the entire group • Review of two case studies; one needing a volunteer to find the answer in the online cultural competency book and one involving group discussion • Showing of "Speak Up," The Joint Commission's video on pain • Small group workshop —identifying a quality graph, how to read it and interpret; answers are shared with the large group
Skin care and wound prevention	• Braden scale • Resources • When to place a wound care consult • Skin products	• Case study in which a nurse and nursing assistant are paired—the nurse uses the Braden scale and both discuss interventions to reduce pressure injuries • Large group discussion on the results of case study
Patient safety and safety	• Abuse and neglect • Safety procedures and codes • Culture of safety • Occurrence reporting	• Small group activity in which learners draw cards with safety codes and use their handbook to find answers • Answers from the small group activity are shared with the large group using teach-back techniques
Centers of excellence programs	• Primary stroke center • Chest pain center • Heart failure certification • Level II trauma center	• Showing of video on signs and symptoms of a stroke
Professionalism and accountability	• Scope of practice, delegation • Participation in Magnet® recognition program • Practice expectations • Policy review	• Small group work to match word clouds to policies (dress code, tuition, attendance, clinical ladder) followed up by large group discussion • Interactive quiz on delegation
Review	• Key topics covered during the day	• Charade game using a tablet-based app to review the day
