Snowfall: Part One - Freeze Watch Benson E Wolf, Miranda doesn't normally submit to letting life happen to her so she's going to chase after what she wants And she wants Cyrus Smart sexy and not afraid to change her life's course Miranda is a stunning self made 24 year old who left Las Vegas for a career outside of Boston Massachusetts

However she didn't plan on reliving the thirst of the Nevada desert when she met her neighbor the rugged assertive but caring Cyrus McManus. She only knows that she needs him to quench that thirst. Miranda's not looking for love so submitting herself to a no strings attached arrangement with the dominate New Englander is fine with her until she wants his strings. After almost a decade widower Cyrus McManus continues to struggle with the emotional aftermath of his wife's death. Focusing his life as the father of teenage twins he is content with the occasional fleeting one night stand. The bearded author has closed himself off from the hope of romance forever or so he thinks. Will Cyrus be the proper father figure who takes Miranda in hand or will he give her a new meaning of daddy issues. Can I Say No? Stefanie Preissner, 2019-05-09. For most of her life Stefanie Preissner was a people pleaser. From hair raising sleepovers and endless offers of cake to unwanted second dates and unrealistic work demands she said yes to everything even if it scared her or made her uncomfortable. Until one day she realised that her life had become more about agreeing to other people's decisions than making any of her own. What did she want? And how would she figure this out? So Stefanie made a decision she would start saying no. To everything. Hilarious and honest Can I Say No follows Stefanie through managing her fear of disappointing people, the thrill of setting boundaries and finally coming to understand that she was worth more than the sum of her yeses. But is no always the right answer? And what's the secret to finding the right balance so you can say YES to who you really are? What Stefanie captures so beautifully is that our value and worth are not tied to saying yes to everything that's asked of us. Arianna Huffington.

Terror Down Under Daniel Best, 2023-07-20. In 1948 the Australian government banned the production, importation and exhibition of horror films in a move to appease religious communities and entertainment watchdogs. Drawing upon previously unseen government documents, private letters and contemporary newspaper accounts, this book is the first to extensively cover the history of censorship and the early production of horror movies in Australia. Beginning its examination in the late 19th century, the book documents the earliest horror films like Georges Melies' The Haunted Castle 1896 and how Australians enjoyed such films before the ban. The book then explains how certain imports like 1954's Creature from the Black Lagoon were able to circumvent the ban while others were not. It also reveals how Australian television, though similarly impacted by government censorship, was occasionally able to broadcast films technically banned from cinematic release. The work concludes with a look at the first Australian horror films produced after the ban was formally lifted in 1969 like Terry Bourke's Night of Fear 1973. Mastering the Data Paradox Nitin Seth, 2024-03-18. There are two remarkable phenomena that are unfolding almost simultaneously. The first is the emergence of a data first world where data has become a central driving force shaping industries and fueling innovation. The second is the dawn of the AI age propelled by the advent of Generative AI that has created the possibility to leverage the data of the world for the first time. The convergence of these two with data as the common denominator holds immense promise and the opportunities are boundless. This book provides us with opportunities to push our thinking to innovate, to transform and to create a better future at all levels: individual, enterprise and
