Vinyl Records and Analog Culture in the Digital Age Paul E. Winters,2016-07-18 Vinyl Records and Analog Culture in the Digital Age Pressing Matters examines the resurgence of vinyl record technologies in the twenty first century and their place in the history of analog sound and the recording industry It seeks to answer the questions why has this supposedly outmoded format made a comeback in a digital culture into which it might appear to be unwelcome Why in an era of disembodied pleasures afforded to us in this age of cloud computing would listeners seek out this remnant of the late nineteenth century and bring it seemingly back from the grave Why do many listeners believe vinyl with its obvious drawbacks to be a superior format for conveying music to the relatively noiseless CD or digital file This book looks at the ways in which music technologies are both inflected by and inflect human interactions creating discourses practices disciplines and communities

Publishing 101 Jane Friedman,2014-12-04 Learn the basics of the publishing industry Inclusive Young Adult

Fiction Melanie Ramdarshan Bold,2019-01-04 This book examines diversity or the lack thereof in young adult fiction YA publishing It focuses on cultural hegemony in the United Kingdom and explores how literary culture aimed at young adults reproduces and perpetuates racial and ethnic cultural hierarchies Diversity is described by the We Need Diverse Books project as all diverse experiences including but not limited to LGBTQIA Native people of color gender diversity people with disabilities and ethnic cultural and religious minorities This study focuses on people of colour While previous studies have looked at the representation of ethnic minorities in books for children and young adults this book examines the experiences of own voice cultural producers that create a counter narrative Specifically this book will investigate the output and experiences of British young adult fiction authors of colour BAME authors published in the UK during the period 2006 2016 drawing upon semi structured interviews with a sample of authors
