Lost und die Zukunft des Fernsehens Daniela Olek, 2011-04-01 TV for the post TV generation so wurde die Serie LOST USA 2004 10 ABC 2006 in einem Artikel des Time Magazine titulierte Doch warum wurde diese Serie als solcherart revolutionär bezeichnet Welche charakteristischen Besonderheiten evozieren eine derartige Aufmerksamkeit Was genau ist es das LOST von herkömmlichen Fernsehserien so sehr abhebt dass LOST als zukunftsweisend und als neuer Meilenstein in der Geschichte von Fernsehserien betrachtet wird LOST ist eine der ersten

Serien in der vollkommen auf die episodische Struktur verzichtet wird und die zudem derart fragmentarisch nonlinear organisiert ist wie es in diesem Ausmaß in einem werbefinanzierten US Network noch nicht da gewesen ist. Hinzu kommen eine Fülle an Details sowie unzählige intertextuelle Verweise die in Verbindung mit der Distribution von Erzählelementen in andere Medien multiple vernetzte Handlungs- und Bedeutungsebenen generieren. Anhand von LOST als paradigmatischem Beispiel zeigt Daniela Olek in ihrer Studie auf wie ein eigentlich geschlossenes Textsystem die Fernsehserie durch die Einbettung in einen Medienverbund Internet DVD und Videospiel geöffnet wird und den Zuschauer in die narrative Welt integriert. Ausgehend von der Prämisse dass sich Medien und infolgedessen ihre jeweiligen ästhetischen Formen intermedial beeinflussen und neue Medien wie das Internet die Weiterentwicklung bestehender Erzählformen implizieren analysiert Olek die aktuellen höchst komplexen und weitreichenden Transformationen medialen Erzählens vor dem Hintergrund eingeführter Hypertext Konzepte. Anhand der Hypertext Charakteristika Nonlinearität Verlinkungen und aktive Rezipienten entwirft Olek eine Poetik transmedialen Erzählens und reflektiert die Implikationen einer derartig gestalteten Fernsehserie auf das Konzept von Zuschauerschaft wie auch auf das Medium Fernsehen selbst.

Divine Programming Charlotte E. Howell,2020-03-02 From the mid 90s to the present television drama with religious content has come to reflect the growing cultural divide between white middle America and concentrated urban elites As author Charlotte E Howell argues in this book by 2016 television narratives of white Christianity had become entirely disconnected from the religion they were meant to represent Programming labeled family friendly became a euphemism for white middlebrow America and developing audience niches became increasingly significant to serial dramatic television Utilizing original case studies and interviews Divine Programming investigates the development writing producing marketing and positioning of key series including 7th Heaven Friday Night Lights Rectify Supernatural Jane the Virgin Daredevil and Preacher As this book shows there has historically been a deep ambivalence among television production cultures regarding religion and Christianity more specifically It illustrates how middle American television audiences lost significance within the Hollywood television industry and how this in turn has informed and continues to inform television programming on a larger scale In recent years upscale audience niches have aligned with the perceived tastes of affluent educated multicultural and importantly secular elites As a result the televised representation of white Christianity had to be othered and shifted into the unreality of fantastic genres to appeal to niche audiences To examine this effect Howell looks at religious representation through four approaches establishment distancing displacement and use and looks at series across a variety of genres and outlets in order to provide varied analyses of each theme

Television Show Trends, 2016-2020 Yvonne D. Leach, Nicholas J. Natalicchio, 2023-11-20 What do Euphoria, Normal People, Atlanta, Ramy, Vida, I May Destroy You, Stranger Things, and Lovecraft Country have in common? In the 2016-2020 time period, they were created. These TV shows exemplified one or more of four noteworthy trends: authenticity, diversity, sexual candor, and retrospection. This is the first book to examine live-action fictional television shows produced within a five-year period through the lens of the trends that they epitomize. For each show, the following is discussed: the significance of the platform and the format, the intentions of the creators and showrunners, pertinent background information, similar shows and precedents, the storytelling approach, the cinematic form, and finally, how the show is emblematic of that particular trend. Since trends have the possibility of becoming part of the mainstream, they are important to identify as they emerge, especially for viewers who have a keen interest in narrative television shows.
