Netflixed Gina Keating, 2012-10-11 Netflix has come a long way since 1997 when two Silicon Valley entrepreneurs Marc Randolph and Reed Hastings decided to start an online DVD store before most people owned a DVD player They were surprised and elated when launch day traffic in April 1998 crashed their server and resulted in 150 sales Today Netflix has more than 25 million subscribers and annual revenues above 3 billion Yet long-term success or even survival is still far from guaranteed Journalist Gina Keating recounts the absorbing fast-paced drama of the company's turbulent rise to the top and its attempt to invent two new kinds of business First it engaged in a grueling war against video store behemoth Blockbuster transforming movie rental forever Then it jumped into an even bigger battle for online video streaming against Google Hulu Amazon and the big cable companies Netflix ushered in such innovations as DVD rental by mail a patented online queue of upcoming rentals and a recommendation algorithm called Cinematch that proved crucial in its struggle against bigger rivals Yet for all its success Netflix is still a polarizing company Hastings is often heralded as a

World Cinema On Demand Stefano Baschiera,Alexander Fisher,2022-05-05 World Cinema on Demand brings together diverse contributions by leading film and media scholars to examine world cinema's dialogue with the transformations that took place during 2010-2014 engaging directly with ongoing debates surrounding national cinema, transnational identity and cultural globalization as well as ideas about genre, fandom and cinephilia. The contributions look at individual national patterns of online distribution engaging with archives, SVODS and torrent communities. The essays also investigate the cross-cultural presence of world cinema in non-domestic online markets such as Europe's for example. As a result the volume sheds light on geo-politically specific issues of film circulation, consumption and preservation within a range of culturally diverse filmmaking contexts including case studies from India, Nigeria, Mexico and China. In this way the collection maps the impact of different online formats of distribution in the understanding of World Cinema underlining the links between distribution and media provisions as well as engaging with new forms of intermediation.
