Notes From The Garden Reflections And Observations Of An Organic Gardener:

Notes from the Garden Henry Homeyer, 2003 A hands on gardener Henry Homeyer gives practical advice on how to garden whether building a hot box transplanting peonies defeating the deer growing lady's slipper orchids and shiitake mushrooms or keeping the birds out of the berry bushes Each month covers a range of topics relevant to the season starting seedlings edging and mulching gardening with children getting rid of invasive plants pruning planting shrubs for attracting and feeding birds putting the garden to bed growing houseplants These are just a few of Homeyer's 69 short reflections and observations on matters of interest to amateur dedicated and armchair gardeners alike Homeyer grew up in the 1950s learning about organic gardening from a grandfather who used manure tea and compost not 10 10 10 herbicides and DDT For him organic gardening is not a political position but a common sense approach to having the best soil and the healthiest plants Of special relevance to denizens of zones 3 5 the climatic belt which includes New England and runs across southern Canada and west to the Rockies each of the twelve chapters one for each month contains several pieces combining technical information practical tips personal reflections and more than a little humor An unusual feature is Homeyer's interviews with other gardeners Meet Joe Mooney the aging wizard of turf at Fenway Park Spend an afternoon in the garden with Jamaica Kincaid Visit Jean and Wes Cate growers of heirloom vegetables at Fox Run Farm Learn more about the White House gardens from chief horticulturist Dale Haney Or marvel at Marguerite Tewksbury an 85 year old organic gardener who single handedly runs a farm stand drives her 1950 Ford Ferguson tractor and weeds her 6 000 square foot vegetable patch with a full sized rototiller She doesn't say that keeping active and eating organically keeps her healthy and vigorous but I have a feeling that it does writes Homeyer
