Women of the West Kim Ritter, Ginny Eckley, 2019-08-06 Catalog of photos of a touring exhibition of Art Quilts by Ginny Eckley and Susan Ennis Art Dolls by Janet Bodin Beadwork by Kay Hendricks and Digital Art Quilts by Kim Ritter Ginny Eckley and Susan Ennis had successfully created several collaborative art quilts when they decided to ask Kim Ritter to collaborate with them After many false starts they decided to create works in the western theme that Kim was already working on and to try out some of the digital printing options Kim had been using since 2004 They added their own spin by painting and stenciling on top of the printed layer Janet Bodin joined the group a year later creating 7 art dolls Ritter then realized her quilts would look great with some hand beading and she asked her mother Kay Hendricks to add beadwork to her quilts Hendricks has been making and collecting western beadwork 40 years She has a world class collection of Native American art jewelry and beadwork Shown at the International Quilt Festival in 2019

Women in American History Peg A. Lamphier, Rosanne Welch, 2017-01-23 This four volume set documents the complexity and richness of women s contributions to American history and culture empowering all students by demonstrating a more populist approach to the past Based on the content of most textbooks it would be easy to reach the erroneous conclusion that women have not contributed much to America s history and development Nothing could be further from the truth Offering comprehensive coverage of women of a diverse range of cultures classes ethnicities religions and sexual identifications this four volume set identifies the many ways in which women have helped to shape and strengthen the United States This encyclopedia is organized into four chronological volumes with each volume further divided into three sections Each section features an overview essay and thematic essay as well as detailed entries on topics ranging from Lady Gaga to Ladybird Johnson Lucy Stone and Lucille Ball and from the International Ladies of Rhythm to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union The set also includes a vast variety of primary documents such as personal letters public papers newspaper articles recipes and more These primary documents enhance users learning opportunities and enable readers to better connect with the subject matter

Gender and Genre in 1990s Hollywood Patricia Di Risio, 2024-11-14 The 1990s was a decade of significant turmoil in Hollywood cinema which resulted in a watershed moment in the interplay of gender and genre Patricia Di Risio argues that cinematic representations of unconventional women had an important effect on traditionally male oriented genres such as the crime thriller road movie western film noir war film sci fi and horror Di Risio analyses seven key films from the decade including Blue Steel 1990 Thelma Louise 1991 The Quick and the Dead 1995 Bound 1996 Jackie Brown 1997 G I Jane 1997 and Alien Resurrection 1997 paying particular attention to their use of irony allusion and pastiche She highlights how their female protagonists a majority of whom are decidedly queer or gender questioning personas produce an intense crossover in genre conventions largely driven by their gender rebellion She examines how a deconstruction of gender simultaneously allows genre hybridity and intertextuality taking these films into unexpected new directions In doing so she delineates a clear line between the unconventional nature of the representation of the female protagonists and innovative changes to genre filmmaking practices Richard E. Norman and Race Filmmaking Barbara Tapa Lupack, 2013-11-08 A history of the early 1900s southern born white filmmaker and the silent films he created for black audiences In the early 1900s so called race filmmakers set out to produce black oriented pictures to counteract the racist caricatures that had dominated cinema from its inception Richard E Norman a southern born white filmmaker was one such pioneer From humble beginnings as a roving home talent filmmaker recreating photoplays that starred local citizens Norman would go on to produce high quality feature length race pictures Together with his better known contemporaries Oscar Micheaux and Noble and George Johnson Richard E Norman helped to define early race filmmaking Making use of unique archival resources including Norman s personal and professional correspondence detailed distribution records and newly discovered original shooting scripts this book offers a vibrant portrait of race in early cinema Grounded in impressive archival research Barbara Lupack s book offers a long overdue history of Richard E Norman and the filmmaking company he established early in the twentieth century Lupack s ability to describe Norman s films and the work that went into their production reanimates them for readers and stresses their role in shaping early African American cinematic representation Paula Massood author of Making a Promised Land Harlem in 20th Century Photography and Film Thoroughly researched and crisply written The first book length work on Norman Lupack s monograph clearly delineates the Norman Company s importance Richard E Norman and Race Filmmaking s most profound contribution lies perhaps in how it illuminates the fraught economics of race filmmaking Journal of American History Lupack s book provides a wealth of archival information about this vibrant moment in film history This is a solid contribution to regional film studies and race film business practice and will appeal to scholars students and film buffs alike Black Camera Jack The Bandit Amelia Khatri, 2024-11-17 Jack The Bandit explores the fascinating phenomenon of how society transforms criminals into celebrated folk heroes examining the complex interplay between crime social justice and cultural mythology throughout history Through meticulous analysis of historical records court documents and folk narratives the book reveals how the noble outlaw archetype emerges across different cultures and time periods from medieval Robin Hood to American Western outlaws The book s three part structure first establishes the historical foundations of banditry then delves into the mechanics of myth making through media and popular culture and finally examines these narratives lasting impact on modern society By analyzing specific case studies including Australian bushrangers and Western outlaws the work illuminates how socioeconomic conditions class tensions and resistance to authority contribute to the elevation of criminals to cultural icon status Particularly intriguing is the book s revelation of consistent patterns in how different societies separated by time and geography create surprisingly similar outlaw hero narratives Drawing from diverse sources including police records period newspapers and folklore collections this scholarly yet accessible work combines traditional historical analysis with contemporary sociological frameworks For true crime and history enthusiasts the book offers valuable insights into how past bandit narratives continue to influence modern perspectives on crime and justice while maintaining academic rigor without resorting to sensationalism The research particularly stands out for its examination of how media representation and public perception transform real criminal acts into heroic tales that reflect broader social justice concerns

Memory and Identity in Modern and Postmodern American Literature Lovorka Gruic Grmusa, Biljana Oklopčić, 2022-09-16 This book discusses how American literary modernism and postmodernism interconnect memory and identity and if and how the intertwining of memory and identity has been related to the dominant socio-cultural trends in the United States or the specific historical contexts in the world The book's opening chapter is the interrogation of the narrator's memories of Jay Gatsby and his life in F Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby The second chapter shows how in William Faulkner's Light in August memory impacts the search for identities in the storylines of the characters The third chapter discusses the correlation between memory self and culture in Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire Discussing Robert Coover's Gerald's Party the fourth chapter reveals that memory and identity are contextualized and that cognitive processes including memory are grounded in the body's interaction with the environment featuring dehumanized characters whose identities appear as role plays The subsequent chapter is the analysis of how Jonathan Safran Foer's Everything Is Illuminated deals with the heritage of Holocaust memories and postmemories The last chapter focuses on Thomas Pynchon's

Against the Day the reconstructive nature of memory and the politics and production of identity in Southeastern Europe

BOOK JACKET Women of the American West Layla Gupta, The American West of the 19th century was a landscape of vast promise and relentless hardship and at the heart of this transformative era were the pioneer women who shaped it with courage resilience and determination These women often overlooked in traditional frontier narratives played vital roles in taming the wild land raising families in isolated settlements and forging communities in places where few comforts existed Life on the frontier was not only physically demanding but emotionally and mentally taxing requiring unyielding strength and adaptability from the women who called it home Pioneer women came from many backgrounds European immigrants former slaves seeking freedom and eastern women pursuing opportunity or following family westward Regardless of origin they all encountered the same rugged terrain and unpredictable conditions Women managed homesteads often working side by side with their husbands or in many cases alone They planted crops tended livestock chopped wood cooked over open fires and nursed the sick without access to professional care These women became adept at improvising finding ways to survive and thrive in a world that offered no guarantees In many cases women were responsible for the social and cultural fabric of emerging frontier communities They organized schools churches and sewing circles establishing a sense of normalcy and connection amid isolation Their presence helped to stabilize early settlements offering not only domestic management but also leadership and social organization Despite limited legal rights many frontier women exerted influence through their roles in education religion and community cohesion
