The New Deal

Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and answer the questions.

The Great Depression was a severe economic downturn that began in 1929 and lasted until the mid-1930s. It was caused by a combination of factors, including overproduction, falling prices, and a lack of government intervention.

The New Deal was a series of programs and policies implemented by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to provide relief, recovery, and reform during the Great Depression.

The New Deal was designed to provide relief to the unemployed and the poor, to recover the economy, and to reform the financial system to prevent a similar crisis in the future.

The New Deal was a landmark event in American history, and it played a major role in shaping the modern welfare state.

The New Deal was a response to the crisis of the Great Depression, and it was a turning point in the history of the United States.
