Indiana Notary Public Guide Indiana Secretary of State,2019-04-06 A notary is a public official responsible for independently verifying signatures and oaths Depending on how a document is written a notarization serves to affirm the identity of a signer and the fact that they personally executed their signature A notarization or notarial act officially documents the identity of a party to a document or transaction and the occasion of the signing that others can rely upon usually at face value A notary s authentication is intended to be reliable to avoid the inconvenience of having to locate a signer to have them personally verify their signature as well as to document the execution of a document perhaps long after the lifetime of the signer and the notary An oath is a sworn statement In most cases a person will swear that a written statement oral statement or testimony they are about to give is true A notary can document that the notary administered an oath to an individual Maine Notary Public Handbook and Resource Guide Maine Secretary of State,2019-04-06

Historically Notaries Public predate the Roman empire their development coincides with that of written and recorded communication As the ability to read and write was rare the earliest Notaries Public served primarily as scribes to assist the illiterate The decline of the Roman empire saw a corresponding reduction in the volume and importance of written communication It wasn t until the dawning of the Renaissance that Notaries Public were once again called upon to perform important societal functions Over the centuries many a great author poet and historian supplemented their incomes with fees collected from the provision of literacy services American pioneer history is replete with examples of notarial assistance Among them the processing of land or mining claims the authentication of public or private documents and the reading and writing of general correspondence Notary Journal Amy Newton,2020-08-05 Connecticut Notary Public Manual

Connecticut Secretary of the State,2019-04-06 There are many reasons why someone would seek to be a notary public You might be the owner of a small business you may work in an office where clients and customers have frequent need of a notary s services you may enjoy the official nature of the duties or it may be a requirement of your job No matter what the reason appointment as a notary public is a serious undertaking The notary is a public official a person given a public trust a person whose duties and responsibilities cannot be taken lightly The notary serves a vital role in the execution of a wide range of documents Whenever individuals see a document that has been notarized they should be confident that the notarial act has been performed correctly As a notary public it is your responsibility to use intelligence and judgment and always perform your duties as required by Connecticut State law You must remember that others are relying on your honesty and integrity

Idaho Notary Public Handbook Idaho Secretary of State,2019-04-06 Everybody knows what a notary public does right Actually there is much misunderstanding and confusion about what the proper role and duty of a notary is A notary public does not legalize documents or verify the accuracy or truthfulness of the content or statements made in a document and yet the role that a notary plays in ascertaining the identity of the person who signs a document placing that person under oath if required and determining the signer s intent and willingness to consent to the transaction is vital in modern society A notary public is a public official commissioned by the Secretary of State to administer oaths and affirmations take acknowledgments witness signatures and perform other duties as permitted by state law A notary should be familiar with the Idaho notary laws and to follow the standards of reasonable care for performing a notarial act California Notary Public Study Guide
