Nothing Three Inquiries In Buddhism Trios:

Nothing Marcus Boon, Timothy Morton, Eric Cazdyn, 2024-05-31 Though contemporary European philosophy and critical theory have long had a robust engagement with Christianity there has been no similar engagement with Buddhism a surprising lack given Buddhism's global reach and obvious affinities with much of Continental philosophy This volume fills that gap focusing on nothing essential to Buddhism of course but also a key concept in critical theory from Hegel and Marx through deconstruction queer theory and contemporary speculative philosophy Through an elaboration of emptiness in both critical and Buddhist traditions an examination of the problem of praxis in Buddhism Marxism and psychoanalysis and an explication of a Buddhaphobia that is rooted in modern anxieties about nothingness Nothing opens up new spaces in which the radical cores of Buddhism and critical theory are renewed and revealed The Earth Writes Koichi Haga, 2019-01-16

This book extensively analyzes the literary works of fiction that draw on the Great East Japan Earthquake and Tsunami that occurred on March 11 2011 This disaster inspired literally hundreds of fictional works in Japan from the time of the events through 2017 This response represents a unique and perhaps unprecedented cultural phenomenon in the world Since a variety of writers in different genres and even amateurs have written and published books inspired by their experiences of the disaster it is extremely difficult to cover the entire body of Japanese post 3 11 literature Because of the breadth of this literary response there is a scarcity of research on the subject available This book offers the first comprehensive review of Japan's recent post disaster literary production to the English audience A Trio of Zen Buddhist Stories Albert

Shansky, 2011-03-28 So there you have it three tragic stories two ending in death all three of an existential mode What does it all mean Is one's life guided by some supernatural force Or is it the individual's Karma which is the driving force of our actions According to karma theory every action has a consequence which will come to fruition in either this or a future life thus morally good acts will have positive consequences whereas bad acts will produce negative results Manifesto for the Humanities Sidonie Smith, 2016 After a remarkable career in higher education that has seen her serve as the Chair of the University of Michigan English Department the Director of the Michigan Institute for the Humanities and the President of the Modern Language Association Sidonie Smith offers Manifesto for the Humanities as a reflective contribution to the current academic conversation over the place of the humanities in the 21st century Her focus as the subtitle indicates is on doctoral education and opportunities she sees for its reform The Grand Challenge confronting academic humanists Smith avers is the imperative of sustaining passionate conviction about the value of studying the humanities in a climate of funding scarcity corporatization and neoliberal market economics Responsibility for that sustainability in the academy in the nation and around the globe lies in part with humanities doctoral students now or soon to be entering careers who are driven by the desire to continue conversations journeys and discoveries whether they take place in archives in lines of poetry in the logic of the assertion or in the dirt of the dig These doctoral students are preparing to play their role as agents of change for a sustainable future Grounded in research and a thorough background study of factors contributing to current crises in the humanities Smith s project advocates for a broadening or re opening of some of the more hermetic aspects of ultra specialization towards further interdisciplinary bridge building and towards a more robust engaged public humanities Book jacket
