Living and Active Telford Work, 2001-10 For all of the Bible's popularity both in the church and in Western culture confusion reigns about what the Bible is its relationship to God its relationship to its human authors and readers and its proper use Living and Active answers these fundamental questions by looking anew at Scripture from the perspective of Christian doctrine Rather than treating the Bible as a sourcebook for theology Telford Work uses systematic theology to build a compelling new doctrine of Scripture the doctrine of God establishes the Bible's triune character and purpose the doctrine of salvation explains the mission of Scripture in ancient Israel in the career of Jesus and in the life of his followers the doctrine of the church relates the Bible's qualities to those of its reading communities describes the relation of Scripture and tradition and appreciates the Bible's role in worship and in personal salvation Drawing in this way on the full resources of Christian dogmatics allows us to see the Bible at work accomplishing God's purposes in the world Throughout the book Work incorporates insights from the Eastern Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Calvinist Anabaptist and evangelical traditions in order to produce a truly ecumenical doctrine of Scripture He also interacts with patristic theology and practice historical critical methods of interpretation and postmodern thought refusing to draw lines between biblical studies ethics history philosophy and theology As a result Living and Active is the most comprehensive balanced and relevant statement of Scripture now available It clearly portrays the Bible as integral to the economy of salvation and the life of the church it offers solutions to the current crisis of biblical authority and practice and it prescribes fruitful ways to preach teach and live Scripture in today's world Bulletin - Bureau of Education United States. The ^ADao of Madness Alexis McLeod, 2021-09-28. In The Dao of Madness, Alexis McLeod discusses three different accounts of the concept of madness (kuang) in early Chinese thought and the origins of the conception of mental illness in early China. Madness is discussed in early Chinese texts in connection with personhood, self-cultivation, and agency. The book explores the role of madness in Confucian texts, which take madness as the result of flawed character, and in the Zhuangzi and related texts, which celebrate madness as an alternative and unbounded view of the world.
