Anglophone Literature and Culture Sara Martín, M. Isabel Santaulària, 2023-03-07 This edited volume rethinks Masculinity Studies by breaking away from the notion of the perpetual crisis of masculinity It argues that not enough has been done to distinguish patriarchy from masculinity and proposes to detox masculinity by offering a collection of positive representations of men in fictional and non fictional texts The editors show how ideas of hegemonic and toxic masculinity have been too fixed on the exploration of dominance and subservience and too little on the men and the male characters in fiction who behave following other ethical personal and socially accepted patterns Bringing together research from different periods and genres this collection provides broad multidisciplinary insights into alternative representations of masculinity Beyond New

Media Art Herbig, Andrew F. Herrmann, Adam W. Tyma, 2014-11-14 Beyond New Media Discourse and Critique in a Polymediated Age examines a host of differing positions on media in order to explore how those positions can inform one another and build a basis for future engagements with media theory research and practice Herbig Herrmann and Tyma have brought together a number of media scholars with differing paradigmatic backgrounds to debate the relative applicability of existing theories and in doing so develop a new approach polymediation Each contributor's disciplinary background is diverse spanning interpersonal communication media studies organizational communication instructional design rhetoric mass communication gender studies popular culture studies informatics and persuasion Although each of these scholars brings with them a unique perspective on media's role in people's lives what binds them together is the belief that meaningful discourse about media must be an ongoing conversation that is open to critique and revision in a rapidly changing mediated culture By studying media in a polymediated way Beyond New Media addresses more completely our complex relationship to media in our everyday lives The Instinctive Screenplay Sam North, 2017-09-16 What is it that makes humans engage with a dramatic narrative Is it linked to our primitive selves contained within our instinctive experience This innovative text argues that understanding how and why our human instincts are brought into play as we watch screen drama is the key to writing it Analysing four powerful instincts willpower logic morality and emotion Sam North explores how they determine our level of involvement in their drama and how screenwriters can use them to develop their craft Including a variety of both well known and less famous examples from The Shawshank Redemption to Samira Makhmalbaf's The Apple this book offers a fresh new approach to thinking about discussing and writing screenplays

Junge Herr Brecht Wird Schriftsteller Jürgen Hillesheim, Stephen Brockmann, 2006 Although the work of the young Bertolt Brecht used to be neglected by literary and theater scholars it has attracted growing attention Brecht's early work including the work that he did in his teens as a schoolboy in Augsburg is far too complex and differentiated simply to be written off as a proto Marxist phase paving the way for the classic Brecht The contributions to this volume show the ambitious young man in a field of tension between his radical questioning of moral religious and literary authorities and his unconditional will to become a famous writer even if it meant making significant compromises The volume explores the young Brecht in a multifaceted complex way and its authors Reinhold Grimm Jan Knopf James K Lyon and others take different sometimes conflicting positions about the writer Published for the first time are two previously unknown texts by the young Brecht ISSN 0734 8665
