Teaching Guide Lerner Classroom Editors, Robin Nelson, 2009-08-01 FIRST STEP NONFICTION SEASONS TEACHING GUIDE The Teacher's Guide to SEN Natalie Packer, 2017-03-03 In The Teacher's Guide to SEN Natalie Packer outlines what all teachers need to know about SEN and provides a range of practical tips and ideas that can be applied in the classroom One of the key messages of the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice first introduced in 2014 is that every teacher is responsible and accountable for every pupil in their class including those with SEN So what does this mean in practice for you as a class or subject teacher Essentially it requires you to understand every individual's needs have a range of relevant knowledge and skills and have the confidence to try out some new approaches This book is your essential guide to meeting these requirements The Teacher's Guide to SEN details the areas of need teachers are most likely to encounter including speech language and communication needs SLCN autism or ASD moderate learning difficulties MLD specific learning difficulties SpLD including dyslexia dyspraxia and dyscalculia social emotional and mental health needs and physical needs including visual impairment VI hearing impairment HI and physical disability It also provides a useful overview of the many potentially unfamiliar acronyms used in SEN Special educational needs and disability SEND is an umbrella terms which covers a varied array of different needs They may impact upon learning and cognition behaviour social interactions or an individual's ability to access the curriculum and certain activities in the same way as their peers With the appropriate support these needs need not be a barrier to learning as this book demonstrates The Teacher's Guide to SEN offers practical hands on strategies to ensure high quality teaching for all together with key facts real life case studies and questions for reflection The comprehensive advice includes defining special educational needs understanding your responsibilities identifying pupils with SEN and putting support in place as part of the graduated approach contributing to SEN reviews and education health and care plans EHC plans making reasonable adjustments in the classroom delivering inclusive high quality teaching for all raising expectations classroom strategies focused on feedback planning questioning modelling and scaffolding learning developing relationships with pupils and their families effective partnership working with teaching assistants parents and outside agencies and tracking and reviewing progress and provision Relevant to all primary and secondary practitioners this is an essential point of reference for busy teachers including trainees NQTs or indeed any practitioner who would like to refresh their knowledge or gather some new ideas to try in the classroom The Professor's Guide to Taming Technology Kathleen P. King, Thomas D. Cox, 2011-01-01 This book is provided as a guide encouragement and handbook for faculty to introduce digital media in language you can understand and provide strategies and activities you can quickly assimilate into your teaching We are excited that more people will be able to benefit from the powerful help and guidance contained in this book We are even more exhilarated as we anticipate how each of you will discover applications and new directions we would never anticipate and look forward We look forward to your innovations as you use the material you discover here This book responds to the needs of our changing world and students by revealing innovative technology applications and how faculty are and can use digital media in teaching in higher education because faculty make the quickest changes and learn how to do it best It is a valuable resource for faculty from faculty because it allows the sharing of successful teaching experiences with digital media with our worldwide colleagues so they may modify it extend it and improve it Moreover in our work with faculty across all disciplines we also find that many struggle to think about teaching in ways in which they can incorporate technology meaningfully While we might be experts in our discipline chemistry philosophy music etc due to the curriculum of terminal degrees we might not have strong preparation in instructional design We have been fortunate to bring together faculty experts across different disciplines to specifically speak about how and why to use digital media in higher education settings We realize we are asking you to think about your way of teaching with new ideas and strategies Therefore we try to illustrate them with clear examples These different approaches include clear descriptions of what these activities look like why to develop and implement them and how to do so for your specific needs
