 (b) angle of incidence $i = 90^\circ - \phi = 90^\circ - 60^\circ = 30^\circ$ angle of refraction $r = 90^\circ - \theta = 19.5^\circ$ $n_2 = \frac{\sin 30^\circ}{\sin 19.5^\circ} = 1.50$
17. (a) Transverse waves consist of vibrations in the medium occurring at right angles to the direction of propagation of the wave, whereas in longitudinal waves the vibrations in the medium are parallel to the direction of propagation.
 (b) (i) Amplitude = 4 cm
 (ii) $v = \lambda/T = 2/8 = 1/4 \text{ m s}^{-1}$
 (c) Particles in a fluid medium are loosely bound – too little force exists between them to successfully pass on displacements of one particle to the next and so transverse waves do not propagate through a fluid medium.
18. (a) Any three of: radio, radar, infra red, light, ultraviolet, X-ray, gamma. The response should relate at least relative comparisons such as radar consists of waves of smaller frequency than infra red.

Picturing Citizenship Fay Anderson, Jane Lydon, Melissa Miles, Amanda Nettelbeck, 2025-07-24 For many the conditions and privileges of citizenship and the access it provides to equal civil political and social rights are taken for granted Yet citizenship always implies histories of inclusion and exclusion and in settler nations with colonial roots the history of citizenship is entangled with the legacies of colonisation Looking beyond its legal definition to the wider historical processes through which citizenship and its associated ideas of rights and belonging have been imagined debated and found lasting form this collection considers the unique role of visual culture in defining contesting and advancing ideas of citizenship in settler national contexts from the 19th century to the present day Addressing citizenship's particular entanglements with colonial histories in contemporary settler nations the collection considers how images have shaped the meanings and experiences of citizenship from the colonial era through periods of mass global migration to contemporary geopolitical change and debates on Indigenous rights and recognition Contributors explore the role visual culture has played in imagining or interrogating ideas about belonging rights civic identity and the ideal citizen in societies that continue to grapple with their settler colonial origins They ask how image making may be used to negotiate or contest the limits of citizenship whether as a legal or as an imagined cultural category and the role of visual culture in building relationships between citizens non citizens and the state This collection will provide a new and compelling history of citizenship and the ways it has been defined not only by historicising citizenship's visual imagery but by exploring its present effects and legacies Australian National Bibliography, 1996 The British Architect
