Incel Katherine Denkinson, 2025-11-14

With the rise of interest in dramas such as Netflix's Adolescence which aired in the UK in 2025 and a spate of crimes such as the Otley Run attack in April 2025, Incel culture has become headline news. This timely and much needed book separates the fact and the fiction around Incels in an increasingly anxious national conversation. Katherine Denkinson explores the men behind the incel subculture and the misinformation that surrounds them. Incel has often been used as a one size fits all term for a wide range of communities from vulnerable to niche to outright misogynist and dangerous. However the reality is not that simple. Incels are not cartoonish villains but real people. The internet has been their route to communication and connection but it has also led to them becoming demonised. Who are these men? What are their motivations? How has our misunderstanding of this subculture made it seem even more dangerous? About the author: Katherine worked in the mental health arena for many years before becoming a journalist and writer. She has a strong track record of writing on Incel culture, Andrew Tate, the Far Right and online radicalization. Her work has led to her frequent appearance as an expert commentator on these issues in national broadcasting and in podcasts including hit podcast Carrie Jade Does Not Exist.

Technology and (Dis)Empowerment Aaditeshwar Seth, 2022-08-29 This timely work draws attention to the varying factors by which technology often leads to disempowerment effects. Seth makes a call to technologists to burst the technology positivism bubble, build an ethos for taking greater responsibility in their work and engage with the rest of society to strengthen democracy.
