Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation,2004 Service-Ability Kevin Robson,2012-11-12 Times have changed Long gone are our days of being kings of the manufacturing industry we are now immersed in the world of service where the relationship between an organization and the customer is an integral part of the product offering The nation is suffering from a widespread lack of truly customer satisfying service We lack the very thing that we need to make this new paradigm work efficiently service ability Organizations of all kinds are facing high customer churn serious customer antagonism loss of consumer confidence and plummeting customer satisfaction Research shows that totally satisfying the customer is the only thing that will secure loyalty and offer significant competitive advantage Yet still on a daily basis we encounter service that frustrates us Whilst the emergence of technology has no doubt brought efficiency to many areas of business activity including the third sector it has led to the standardised and indifferent service we regularly receive We appear to have lost sight that people do business with people Through efficient technology our organisations may be serviceable but they are not service able The arrival of Generation Y and the developments in social media provide businesses with a whole new way to engage with their customers but also provide a new way for customers to rate companies products and services not always in a positive manner Like or Fail have become part of our social language Organizations that refocus on the need to treat customers in a way that satisfies them and not the technology will have better customer retention lower costs of replacement and will build their brand value through better reputations Service Ability delves deeply into these areas to show how today s managers need to re think the way we structure manage lead and organize our companies to achieve total customer centric work cultures that develop lasting relationships with customers

Customer Care Excellence Sarah Cook, 2008 Emphasizing both strategic and practical aspects of customer care this work explains how gaining customer commitment and motivating employees to deliver an excellent service at all of a company s touch points can ensure successful results and satisfied customers

Delivering Effective Social Customer Service Martin Hill-Wilson, Carolyn Blunt, 2013-11-25 Social Customer Service is new Social Media is the biggest thing happening to the customer service industry since the mid 1960s when modern day call centres were born It is taking customers and organisations into untested ways of relating transparently collaboratively instantly The consequences of great and poor service are forever changed Customer appetite has promoted this form of interaction to the very front of a race to understand How do digital brands and empowered customers actually behave Social Customer Service has become Marketing s R D lab and a listening hub for the rest of the organisation It is now where corporate reputations are most likely to be won and lost Delivering Effective Social Customer Service is a complete reference for achieving excellence in this new discipline It caters to both novice and expert It is perfect source material for service leaders and digital marketers to read together Every CXO will recognise in the book a blueprint from which to build their next generation organisation Even ambitious team leaders should snag a copy for instant subject matter expertise kudos The centre of the book offers an in depth self assessment of the competencies that matter The book is jammed full of strategic insight action lists best practice tips and interviews All the resources anyone needs to build a solid strategy and roadmap Early adopter workshops based on the book have already taken place and will continue to be offered as another way of engaging with the book s key lessons An online resource of the reference material is also provided Options for an online community are under consideration This book is the first of its kind A distillation of what has so far been collectively discovered Then filtered and expanded through the collective experience of two leading authorities on customer service Carolyn Blunt and Martin Hill Wilson Achieving Excellence Through Customer Service John Tschohl,1996 Promotes the theory that superior customer service leads to a superior business organisation Network World ,1994-02-07 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce
