The Classroom and the Crowd Al Filreis, 2025-11-25 For more than a decade Al Filreis has taught a free online course about experimental poetry known as ModPo that has drawn some 435 000 students from 179 countries Online classes even a fraction of ModPo s size have been criticized as impersonal and unengaging But the citizens of ModPo have formed a generous and enduring intellectual community as together they read poems typically dismissed as difficult and inaccessible In The Classroom and the Crowd Filreis reflects on his decades of experience as a founder of participatory literary communities and teacher of online courses demonstrating that student centered education offers new possibilities for humane social networking Introducing readers to ModPo participants and their open ended round the clock conversations he shows how online learning can not only be accessible and educational but also deepen our commitment to democracy Filreis argues that the emphasis on collaborative learning space for discussion and the inherent openness of poetry allows for a sense of community continuity and even intimacy that often eludes other online educational endeavors ModPo embodies principles underlying both modern poetics and cooperative education Writers and readers like teachers and learners create meaning together many voices are clearer than one and democracy is a creative practice Proposing an optimistic vision of mass learning this book contends that asynchronous education has surprising advantages over the traditional classroom that panics about a crisis of attention and the death of reading are overblown and that instead of logging off we should all start reading with a crowd

How to be an Author Ashton Cartwright, 36 real authors give us an in depth look at their successes their mistakes and their careers as writers There is nothing in the world as incredible as creating something and getting to hear about other people enjoying it You know that you ve made a change in someone s life even if it s only in a small way It s one of the best feelings in the world Everyone who becomes a professional author does so for different reasons They each face different obstacles have different goals and choose different paths The more authors that a new writer gets the opportunity to learn from the greater the chance that they ll find someone they resonate with and that they ll discover something that can help them in their own career Some of the authors in this book are self published others are traditionally published Some have worked with agents and others have chosen to represent themselves Some authors in this book generate hundreds of thousands of dollars in royalties while others have just finished their very first novel Some exclusively write fiction some non fiction and some write a bit of both Some of them write just for the joy of writing others for the money and still others because they have a story that NEEDS to be told If you take your writing seriously and are keen to be the best author that you can be then How to be an Author 36 Real Authors Talk Writing and Publishing is the book for you
