Scholarship in the Digital Age Christine L. Borgman, 2010-08-13 An exploration of the technical social legal and economic aspects of the scholarly infrastructure needed to support research activities in all fields in the twenty first century Scholars in all fields now have access to an unprecedented wealth of online information tools and services The Internet lies at the core of an information infrastructure for distributed data intensive and collaborative research Although much attention has been paid to the new technologies making this possible from digitized books to sensor networks it is the underlying social and policy changes that will have the most lasting effect on the scholarly enterprise In Scholarship in the Digital Age Christine Borgman explores the technical social legal and economic aspects of the kind of infrastructure that we should be building for scholarly research in the twenty first century Borgman describes the roles that information technology plays at every stage in the life cycle of a research project and contrasts these new capabilities with the relatively stable system of scholarly communication which remains based on publishing in journals books and conference proceedings No framework for the impending data deluge exists comparable to that for publishing Analyzing scholarly practices in the sciences social sciences and humanities Borgman compares each discipline s approach to infrastructure issues In the process she challenges the many stakeholders in the scholarly infrastructure scholars publishers libraries funding agencies and others to look beyond their own domains to address the interaction of technical legal economic social political and disciplinary concerns Scholarship in the Digital Age will provoke a stimulating conversation among all who depend on a rich and robust scholarly environment

The Future of the Commercial Contract in Scholarship and Law Reform Maren Heidemann, Joseph Lee, 2018-11-02 This book explores commercial contract law in scholarship and legal practice suggests new research agendas and provides a forum for debate of typical issues that might benefit from further attention by scholarship and legislatures The authors from over ten different jurisdictions take an international and comparative approach Not confined to EU law it re opens the debate internationally and seeks to reclaim the wider meaning of European law as rooted in geography and cultural legal heritage There is a need to focus on commercial contracts in more detail in research and legislation The transactional approach the role of recent law reform including the new French Civil Code cross border dealings substantive contract law in public international law and ICSID arbitration as well as current contractual practices like OEM CSR contractual co operation sustainability and intra corporate arbitration contribute to a wider regulatory outlook for commercial transactions

Activist Scholarship Julia Sudbury, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 2015-12-03 Can scholars generate knowledge and pedagogies that bolster local and global forms of resistance to U S imperialism racial gender oppression and the economic violence of capitalist globalization This book explores what happens when scholars create active engagements between the academy and communities of resistance In so doing it suggests a new direction for antiracist and feminist scholarship rejecting models of academic radicalism that remain unaccountable to grassroots social movements The authors explore the community and the academy as interlinked sites of struggle This book provides models and the opportunity for critical reflection for students and faculty as they struggle to align their commitments to social justice with their roles in the academy At the same time they explore the tensions and challenges of engaging in such contested work Trade Policy between Law, Diplomacy and Scholarship Christoph Herrmann, Bruno Simma, Rudolf Streinz, 2015-06-20 This book presents 22 topical contributions on international trade law and policy with a particular focus on EU external trade law addressing countries ranging from Ukraine to Switzerland and the US TTIP and aspects from trade and IPRs to anti dumping The volume constitutes a state of the art treatment of the many facets of trade policy in the 21st century from legal diplomatic and academic standpoints The book is dedicated to the memory of Horst G nter Krenzler former Director General for External Relations for the European Commission and Chief Negotiator for the European Union in many trade negotiations honorary professor of European Union law at the University of Munich and an of counsel with Freshfields Brussels office after retirement from the Commission Scholarship on Fire Beau K.
