predicting the financial future In his three previous works Dent predicted the financial recession of the early nineties the economic expansion of the mid nineties and the financial free for all of 1998 2000 The Next Great Bubble Boom part crystal ball part financial planner offers a comprehensive forecast for the next two decades showing new models for predicting the future behavior of the economy inflation large and small cap stocks bonds key sectors and so on In taking a look at past booms and busts Dent compares our current state to that of the crash of 1920 21 and the years ahead of us to the Roaring Twenties Dent gives advice on everything from investment strategies to real estate cycles and shows not only how bright our future will be but how best to profit from it Dent gives us all something to look forward to including The Dow hitting 40 000 by the end of the decade The Nasdaq advancing at least ten times from its October 2001 lows to around 13 500 and potentially as high as 20 000 by 2009 Another strong advance in stocks in 2005 with a significant correction into around September October 2006 The Great Boom resurging into its final and strongest stage in 2007 and even more fully in 2008 lasting until late 2009 to early 2010 Dent's amazing ability to track and forecast our financial future is renowned and here he takes that ability to the next level showing not only what our economy will look like but also how it will affect us as individuals as organizations and as a culture From the upcoming wealth revolution to the essential principles of entrepreneurial success the book describes a new society where economic and philanthropic development go hand in hand In The Next Great Bubble Boom Dent shows not only how the economic growth of the late 1990s was a prelude to the true great boom right around the corner but how all of us can reap its benefits

Are House Prices Rising too Fast in Hong Kong SAR? International Monetary Fund, 2010-12-01 Sharp increase in house prices in Hong Kong SAR in 2009 2010 has led to concerns of an emerging real estate bubble According to our measure of price deviation from fundamentals which should be taken as an early warning indicator of market exuberance the current level of house prices in Hong Kong SAR does not seem to be significantly higher than would be justified by underlying fundamentals Moreover unlike advanced economies before 2007 8 deviation from fundamentals has not been persistent in Hong Kong Going forward low interest rate and improving growth prospects as well as a tight supply particularly in the mass market means that house price growth will continue to be strong This is the period in which vulnerability may be accumulating and tight prudential standards and fiscal measures will be required to tame price inflation
