Young Talent Innovation Telefónica Scholarship. Measuring the Impact of Innovation on

Corporations Vicente Manzano, David, Reigosa Domínguez, Pablo, 2022-09-06 In this research project we will try to measure the impact of innovation in corporations by using a statistical device known as the Technology Acceptance Model In order to cover a sample we will focus on Generation Z which is set to be the future investment force The objective of the project is to obtain a reliable behavioral pattern and consumer profile acquired through a process of survey research and testing In these surveys we will measure the relevance of key Industry 4.0 technologies for the selected sample as well as the most relevant aspects they value when using them Once the survey has been collected we will weigh the results and try to interpret the relationships between the different answers seeking to corroborate the questions posed at the beginning of the project This work lays the foundations for further research due to the multiple limitations we have encountered among which time and knowledge limitations stand out The future project will provide answers to the unknowns that have not yet been corroborated and require complex statistical processes

Micklitz,Edward L. Rubin,2017-02-02 Although American scholars sometimes consider European legal scholarship as old fashioned and inward looking and Europeans often perceive American legal scholarship as amateur social science both traditions share a joint challenge If legal scholarship becomes too much separated from practice legal scholars will ultimately make themselves superfluous If legal scholars on the other hand cannot explain to other disciplines what is academic about their research which methodologies are typical and what separates proper research from mediocre or poor research they will probably end up in a similar situation Therefore we need a debate on what unites legal academics on both sides of the Atlantic Should legal scholarship aspire to the status of a science and gradually adopt more and more of the methods quality standards and practices of other social sciences What sort of methods do we need to study law in its social context and how should legal scholarship deal with the challenges posed by globalization 2016 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance United States.
