Life at

DrTom's: Mostly Humorous Anecdotes by a Mostly Retired Cornell Professor Thomas A. Gavin,2013-02 Life at DrTom's is a diverse collection of easy to digest anecdotes about human behavior wildlife children wives and more from the perspective of a retired Ivy League professor DrTom taught classes in biology and conservation at Cornell University for almost 30 years and he conducted research on birds and mammals in the U S and abroad But he has found that observing humans and describing the human condition are as interesting as the study of wild animals DrTom writes with a somewhat cynical view about his own species in a way that will make you say hey I never thought of that Spanning six decades DrTom describes the colorful experiences that vary from studying squirrels on a cattle ranch in Idaho living in the rainforest of Costa Rica attending a geisha like party in Korea playing tennis for Ohio State to smoking a cigar while sipping a scotch in the forest surrounding his New York home These moments have sharpened his power of observation and informed his impression of what makes human behavior so curious But this life long exploration of what makes life interesting has generated the tangible he celebrates the most the memory of these rich encounters Readers will have no difficulty relating to DrTom's observations and conclusions about the experiences he shares You will see yourself in many of the uncanny situations in which he has found himself as a father grandfather husband teacher and retired baby boomer Regardless of your age gender or educational background the prose will make you laugh or pause or think more deeply about what you see around you

Game Misconduct Nathan Kalman-Lamb, 2018-07-04T00:00:00Z You're not a human being; you're a number, a product, an asset as long as you can perform. If you can't perform, then you're a liability and they'll drop you. Professional athletes suffer tremendous damage to their bodies over the course of their careers. Some literally lose years from their lives because of their injuries. Why do athletes sacrifice themselves? Is it the price of being a professional? Is it all for the fans or the money? What's clear is that the physical and emotional tolls of being a professional athlete may not be worthwhile In Game Misconduct Nathan Kalman Lamb takes us into the world of professional hockey players to illustrate how money consumerism and fandom contribute to the life altering injuries of professional athletes Unlike many critical takes on professional sports Kalman Lamb illustrates how the harm suffered by the athlete is a necessary part of what makes professional sport a desirable commodity for the consuming fan In an economic system capitalism that deprives people of meaning because of its inherent drive to turn everyone into individuals and everything into commodities sports fandom produces a feeling of community But there is a cost to producing this meaning and community and it is paid through the sacrifice of the athlete s body Drawing on extensive interviews with fans and former professional hockey players Kalman Lamb reveals the troubling dynamics and dangerous costs associated with the world of professional and semi professional sport
