Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1988-01 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Doing More with Less Joshua C. Hall,2010-08-18 This volume contains a collection of papers by economists which examine the various strategies for cutting costs and improving productivity in higher education in the United States The dramatic increase in the cost of attending most colleges and universities in recent years has led to increasing concerns regarding college affordability In addition with nearly 35 percent of full time college students failing to receive a bachelor s degree within six years of enrolling in an institution of higher education the productivity of colleges and universities has also been called into question Systematic reform of higher education has intensified as a result of the large amount of public and private dollars flowing into it The chapters in this volume while recognizing it may be the primary source of the problem also understand that the political forces behind the subsidization of higher education are unlikely to wane The contributors examine several areas of possible reform from an economic perspective including financial aid systems athletics and the organization of universities and university systems with an emphasis on identifying the types of reforms that are most likely to result in improvements as well as those that may make things worse This volume will be of interest to economists education researchers and policymakers concerned with education reform Que's Official Internet Yellow Pages Joe Kraynak,2005 Information online is not stored or organized in any logical fashion but this reference attempts to organize and catalog a small portion of the Web in a single resource of the best sites in each category Sale of Foreign Bonds Or Securities in the United States: Hearings, December 18, 19 and 21, 1931 United States. English Language-Mediated Settings and Educational Inequalities Prashneel Ravisan Goundar,2025-03-17 In this book Goundar explores how educational inequalities are responsible for the way students perform in English language mediated school settings He seeks to establish an explicit connection between language testing and educational inequalities at the higher education level With its focus on higher education this research is a fresh reminder of the need to continuously revisit and unsettle inequalities that are embedded in education systems In the South Pacific context this study reveals the current issues including medium of instruction challenges lack of teaching and learning resources teacher shortages and language barriers Goundar s research seeks new answers to the problem of academic English language skills faced by undergraduate students Since English is a second language for the majority of students in Fiji and as the quality of education varies between urban and rural schools this cumulatively impacts students acquisition of English skills and consequently their university performance The important questions posed and addressed in this book are as follows What are the language implications of colonisation on education in the South Pacific What resources and learning opportunities are provided in schools to promote equal access to education content for students from non English speaking backgrounds How do students from different schooling backgrounds in Fiji cope with an English language mediated university learning environment Do educational inequalities manifest in the performance of students from all schooling backgrounds or are they confined to specific sociocultural zones Drawing on a unique dataset from a context in the Global South this book provides new insights for a more holistic approach to examining academic language proficiency and the use of language testing English Language mediated Settings and Educational Inequalities Language Education Policy Agendas in the South Pacific is suitable for postgraduate students in language policy and planning multilingual language policies for schools medium of instruction studies and language testing and South Pacific studies
