Coming Back to a Theater Near You Brian Hannan, 2016-06-05 In the Silent Era film reissues were a battle between rival studios every Mary Pickford new release in 1914 was met with a Pickford re release For 50 years after the Silent Era reissues were a battle between the studios who considered old movies found money and cinema owners who often saw audiences reject former box office hits In the mid 1960s the return of The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 the second biggest reissue of all time altered industry perceptions and James Bond double features pushed the revival market to new heights In the digital age reissues have continued to confound the critics This is the untold hundred year story of how old movies saved new Hollywood Covering the booms and busts of a recycling business that became its own industry the author describes how the likes of Charlie Chaplin Humphrey Bogart and Alfred Hitchcock won over new generations of audiences and explores the lasting appeal of films like Napoleon 1927 Gone with the Wind 1939 The Rocky Horror Show 1975 and Blade Runner 1982

Ticket Scalping Kerry Segrave, 2006-11-15 Ticket scalping is as much an American staple as apple pie Beginning as early as the mid 1800s scalpers known as sidewalk men were charging all the traffic would bear for event tickets Although these speculators were generally viewed as pariahs and public opinion was against the practice legal attempts to limit their activities were far from successful Boston enacted laws as early as 1873 while Pennsylvania followed suit in 1884 Still such measures did little good since some laws were declared unconstitutional and for the ones that were upheld the fines were negligible with jail time rarely served Over the years as moral objections to scalping dimmed the public became more tolerant as the practice became increasingly prevalent By the 1990s the capitalist mantras of free market and economic principles of supply and demand were even being used to justify the practice This volume details the ways in which scalping has changed over the years from a one man business to an agency controlled enterprise from performances by Jenny Lind to Billy Joel The book examines the general situation public opinion and legal perception of scalping for four distinct periods 1850 1899 1900 1917 1918 1949 and 1950 2005 Emphasis is placed on the ways in which public and legal perception of the practice has evolved over this period Scalping slowly gaining a more positive status has become more accepted as part of the economic practice of free markets
