Sisters in Hate Seyward Darby, 2020-07-21 WITH A NEW FOREWARD Journalist Seyward Darby's masterfully reported and incisive Nell Irvin Painter expos pulls back the curtain on modern racial and political extremism in America telling the eye opening and unforgettable Ibram X Kendi account of three women immersed in the white nationalist movement After the election of Donald J Trump journalist Seyward Darby went looking for the women of the so called alt right really just white nationalism with a new label The mainstream media depicted the alt right as a bastion of angry white men but was it As women headlined resistance to the Trump administration's bigotry and sexism most notably at the Women's Marches Darby wanted to know why others were joining a movement espousing racism and anti feminism Who were these women and what did their activism reveal about America's past present and future Darby researched dozens of women across the country before settling on three Corinna Olsen Ayla Stewart and Lana Lokteff Each was born in 1979 and became a white nationalist in the post 9 11 era Their respective stories of radicalization upend much of what we assume about women politics and political extremism Corinna a professional embalmer who was once a body builder found community in white nationalism before it was the alt right while she was grieving the death of her brother and the end of her marriage For Corinna hate was more than just personal animus it could also bring people together Eventually she decided to leave the movement and served as an informant for the FBI Ayla a devoutly Christian mother of six underwent a personal transformation from self professed feminist to far right online personality Her identification with the burgeoning tradwife movement reveals how white nationalism traffics in society's preferred retrograde ways of seeing women Lana who runs a right wing media company with her husband enjoys greater fame and notoriety than many of her sisters in hate Her work disseminating and monetizing far right dogma is a testament to the power of disinformation With acute psychological insight and eye opening reporting Darby steps inside the contemporary hate movement and draws connections to precursors like the Ku Klux Klan Far more than mere helpmeets women like Corinna Ayla and Lana have been sustaining features of white nationalism Sisters in Hate shows how the work women do to normalize and propagate racist extremism has consequences well beyond the hate movement

Patients at Risk Niran Al-Agba, Rebekah Bernard, 2020-11-01 Patients at Risk: The Rise of the Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistant in Healthcare exposes a vast conspiracy of political maneuvering and corporate greed that has led to the replacement of qualified medical professionals by lesser trained practitioners As corporations seek to save money and government agencies aim to increase constituent access minimum qualifications for the guardians of our nation's healthcare continue to decline with deadly consequences This is a story that has not yet been told and one that has dangerous repercussions for all Americans With the rate of nurse practitioner and physician assistant graduates exceeding that of physician graduates if you are not already being treated by a non physician chances are you soon will be While advocates for these professions insist that research shows that they can provide the same care as physicians patients do not know the whole truth that there are no credible scientific studies to support the safety and efficacy of non physicians practicing without physician supervision Written by two physicians who have witnessed the decline of medical expertise over the last twenty years this data driven book interweaves heart rending true patient stories with hard data showing how patients have been sacrificed for profit by the substitution of non physician practitioners Adding a dimension neglected by modern healthcare critiques such as An American Sickness this book provides a roadmap for patients to protect themselves from medical harm

WORDS OF PRAISE and REVIEWS Al Agba and Bernard tell a frightening story that insiders know all too well As mega corporations push for efficiency and tout consumer focused retail services American healthcare is being dumbed down to the point of no return It s a story that many media outlets are missing and one that puts you and your family s health at real risk John Irvine Deductible Media Laced with actual patient cases the book s data and patterns of large corporations replacing physicians with non physician practitioners despite the vast difference in training is enlightening and astounding The authors extensively researched book methodically lays out the problems of our changing medical care landscape and solutions to ensure quality care Marilyn M Singleton MD JD A masterful job of bringing to light a rapidly growing issue of what should be great concern to all of us the proliferation of non physician practitioners that work predominantly inside algorithms rather than applying years of training clinical knowledge and experience Instead of a patient first mentality we are increasingly met with the sad statement of Profits Over Patients echoed by hospitals and health insurance companies John M Chamberlain MHA LFACHE Board Chairman Citizen Health A must read for patients attempting to navigate today s healthcare marketplace Brian Wilhelmi MD JD FASA
