Sadoff,2010 Ranging from cinematic images of Jane Austen s estates to Oscar Wilde s drawing rooms Dianne F Sadoff looks at popular heritage films often featuring Hollywood stars that have been adapted from nineteenth century novels Victorian Vogue argues that heritage films perform different cultural functions at key historical moments in the twentieth century According to Sadoff they are characterized by a double historical consciousness one that is as attentive to the concerns of the time of production as to those of the Victorian period If James Whale s Frankenstein and Tod Browning s Dracula exploited post Depression fear in the 1930s the horror films of the 1950s used the genre to explore homosexual panic 1970s movies elaborated the sexuality only hinted at in the thirties and films of the 1990s indulged the pleasures of consumption Taking a broad view of the relationships among film literature and current events Sadoff contrasts films not merely with their nineteenth century source novels but with crucial historical moments in the twentieth century showing their cultural use in interpreting the present not just the past
