Padol, Alan Simon, 1990 Presents the ins and outs of show business with information on entering the field the function of agents and managers legalities taxes and contracts auditioning and stage fright and other aspects of careers in the performing arts Trade-marks Journal, 2000 Meet the Candidate Videos John Parmelee, 2003-03-30 Parmelee shows how presidential primary videocassettes serve many functions for candidates on their road to the White House These videocassettes which include images and issues often based on polling data and focus groups are sent out before the primaries to battleground states to establish an initial image of the candidate A variety of methods are used to explore the videocassettes of the Democratic and Republican presidential candidates Gary Bauer Bill Bradley George W Bush Steve Forbes Al Gore and John McCain who released presidential primary meet the candidate videos during the 2000 race Frame analysis quantitative content analysis and in depth interviews with the producers of these videos were employed to provide answers to Parmelee's main research question: What function do candidate videos serve in presidential primary campaigns? Findings indicate that these videos, which can run from 5 to 20 minutes in length, serve a clear educational function to explain the candidates' stand on key policy issues. The videos, which are mailed to voters, journalists, and potential donors and shown to Democratic and GOP faithful at party functions, also serve as fundraisers, surrogate speakers, and inoculators. But while the videos share some common functions, each campaign targets its video to a slightly different audience based on the campaign's overall strategy.
