Trapped Between Right And Wrong: Single Parent, Forbidden Romance Kristina Beck, 2023-10-12 Kristina Beck's Trapped Between Right And Wrong is a heartwarming small town single parent contemporary romance An innocent wish That's all it was Charli Because of my selfishness people lose their lives And if the punishment isn't bad enough I inherit everything my sister leaves behind including her adorable six month old baby girl Now I'm a fumbling single mom and tough career woman whose life lies in the balance Unexpectedly Kellan my father's broody business partner reappears looking ridiculously handsome as ever For a man who couldn't stand breathing the same air as me before he's suddenly melting at my feet Little does he know he's starred in plenty of my steamy dreams Slowly the wall between us melts away and love and passion take its place Everyone says I'm the winner in this situation but guilt chases away my happiness Then two more bombs shatter my fragile world making me question the strength of true love and my future Kellan They say I was a hero that Thanksgiving morning To me I was at the wrong place at the wrong time The horrific images burned into my memory are on constant repeat I was thankful it wasn't Charli crushed in the wreckage the woman I've always hidden my true feelings from It was her sister Sandy Now I'm brought face to face with Charli and her niece teasing me with a future I've always wanted Out of respect for my boss I've gone as far as to callously dismiss her for years But circumstances have changed and that reasoning is irrelevant now It's time I put everything on the line and prove she's the only woman for me even if it means losing her anyway if she finds out what I've been hiding from her
