Midcentury Houses Today:

Midcentury Houses Today Lorenzo Ottaviani, Jeffrey Matz, Cristina A. Ross, 2014-10-21 Architects Philip Johnson Marcel Breuer Landis Gores Eliot Noyes Edward Durell Stone and others created an extraordinary collection of modern houses in New Canaan Connecticut in the 1940s and 1950s The bucolic New England town a suburb of Manhattan became the site of fervent experimentation by some of the leading lights of the movement in the United States the architects known as the Harvard Five whose modern aesthetic could be traced to the Bauhaus school of design There they promoted their core principles simplicity openness and sensitivity to site and nature and built glass wood steel and fieldstone houses that established architectural modernism as the ideal of domesticity in the twentieth century Architects Jeffrey Matz and Cristina A Ross photographer Michael Biondo and graphic designer Lorenzo Ottaviani present this vanishing generation of iconic American houses as more than an issue of restoration or preservation but as an evolving legacy that adapts to contemporary life Selecting a representative group of sixteen houses covering the period between the 1950s and 1978 they portray each one in great detail with floor plans timelines and both archival and luminous new photography from the clean minimalist look of the initial construction to subsequent additions by some of the most significant architects of our time including Toshiko Mori Roger Ferris and Joeb Moore Voices of the architects and builders original owners and current occupants combine to describe how the houses are enjoyed and lived in today and how the modernist residence is more than just a philosophy of design and construction but also a philosophy of living

Mid-Century Modern - Visionary Furniture Design from Vienna Caroline Wohlgemuth, 2021-12-31 Visionary furniture design from Vienna In 1938 Vienna lost its best and most creative minds This rupture was manifested in all of the arts and sciences and its mark is felt to this day not least in the field of furniture design With inexhaustible creativity the Jewish furniture designers who were forced to flee Vienna continued to work while in exile They taught at the best universities and spread their ideas and vision throughout the entire world Their creations became classics of twentieth century furniture design the epitome of mid century modern style This book honors the memory of the exiled designers with a thorough overview of their work It details their life stories and their visionary designs which remain as relevant and contemporary as ever and brings to light new aspects of the history of Viennese furniture design A new history of Viennese furniture design with 27 detailed biographies Numerous previously unpublished photographs and sketches Including works by Friedl Dicker Brandeis Martin Eisler Josef Frank Friedrich Kiesler Richard Neutra Bruno Pollak Margarete Sch tte Lihotzky Franz Singer Ernst Schwadron among others

Form Follows Libido Sylvia Lavin, 2007-09-28 How modern architecture came to embrace the urges and fears of the affective unconscious Eight million Americans a year cool their heels in psychiatric waiting rooms Design can help lower this nervous overhead Richard Neutra 1954 Sylvia Lavin's Form Follows Libido argues that by the 1950s some architects felt an urge to steer the cool abstraction of high modernism away from a neutral formalism toward the production of more erotic affective environments Lavin turns to the architecture of Richard Neutra 1892-1970 to explore the genesis of these new mood-inducing environments In a series of engaging essays weaving through the designs and writings of this Vienna-born California-based architect Lavin discovers in Neutra a sustained and poignant psychoanalytic reflection set in the context of a burgeoning psychoanalytic culture in America Lavin shows that Neutra's redirection of modernism constituted not a lyrical regression to sentimentality but a deliberate advance of architectural theory and technique to engage the unconscious mind fueled by the ideas of psychoanalysis that were being rapidly disseminated at the time In Neutra's responses to a vivid range of issues from psychoanalysis proper to the popular psychology of televangelical prayer Lavin uncovers a radical reconstitution of the architectural discipline Arguing persuasively that the received historical views of both psychoanalysis and architecture have led to a suppression of their compelling coincidences and unorthodoxies Lavin sets out to unleash midcentury architecture's hidden libido Neither Neutra nor psychoanalysis emerges unscathed from her investigation of how architecture came to be saturated by the intrigues of affect often against its will If Reyner Banham sought to put architecture on the couch then Lavin through Neutra leaps beyond Banham's ameliorative aim to lure contemporary architecture into the lush and dangerous liaisons of environmental design Rutherford Plans at the Mid-century John Taylor Boyd, 1945
