Querying the Medieval Ronald Inden,Jonathan Walters,Daud Ali,2000-06-08 Indologist Ronald Inden has in the past raised questions about the images of a traditional or medieval India deployed by colonial scholars and rulers Orientalists and has also argued that a history of early medieval India very different from both the colonial and nationalist accounts could be written This volume is designed as an important first step towards that goal The authors look closely at three genres of texts that have been crucial to the representations of precolonial India All three essays challenge not only colonialist scholarship but the attempts by religious nationalists to identify Hinduism as the essence of national identity in India and Buddhism as the essence of nationality in Sri Lanka Designing Productive Learning Environments Frederick G. Knirk, 1979 Based on the premise that school facility design should actively encourage efficient and effective learning this book explores key design decisions that have a crucial impact on the kind of student teacher media interactions which take place in all school rooms and open spaces Topics addressed include learning space specifications the conversion of learning specifications into architectural specifications site planning and facility development new facility costs and funding indoor climate control lighting and acoustical control instructional media technology requirements for effective and efficient learning special purpose facilities for more productive learning and equipment acquisition for the learning environment Appendices provide an evaluation of existing school facilities a checklist for identifying facility requirements a planning checklist a summary of existing facilities and alternative uses of existing facilities an architect selection checklist and a list of carrel furniture and media suppliers Contains 38 references GR Icons of Women's Sport Kelly Boyer Sagert, Steven J. L. Shastri, 2017-01-01. The Purana is a class of literature that treats of ancient religion, philosophy, history, sociology, politics, and other subjects. It is an encyclopedia of various branches of knowledge and ancient wisdom. It has been defined as a class of literature that contains material on the topics of Creation, Dissolution of Manus, Ages of Manus, Genealogies, and the History of glorious kings. For dealing primarily with these subjects, it has been called Pancalaksana, a title that was incorporated in the Puranas themselves and had become popular by the Fifth Century A.D. for it was included by Amarasingha in his lexicon Amarakosa. But as the process of interpolation continued, the Pancalaksana definition was found inadequate. The Puranic redactors adopted a Dasalaksana definition that suited the contemporary text. Still, the dynamic forces were at work, and the process of insertion, modification, and abridgment went on, and it was soon discovered that the Dasa laksana definition too fell short of an actual fact. It was found that the puranas contained certain aspects that were not covered by any five or ten characteristics. The Puranas are divided into two classes: the Maha puranas and the Upapuranas. Each class consists of eighteen puranas. Thus, the number of the Puranas is thirty-six. Mahapuranas are classified into different categories: Vaisnava, Brahma, Saiva, etc. Sivapurana has all the characteristics of a Mahapurana. According to the ancients, a Mahapurana contained five main characteristics that concerned either early religion or traditional history. Sivapurana possesses the conventional characteristics of a Mahapurana in common with its other colleagues. These entitle it to the status of a great Purana. But its real greatness lies in expounding the philosophical background of Siva ritual. The Purana conceives Siva as the eternal principle, the supreme god, the cosmic soul, the support of all existence. But the ignorant aspirant, bound in the meshes of illusion, goes in quest for knowledge and imagines that his lord has a personal form, possessed of attributes distinct from his self, who in moments of distress responds to his prayers and bestows grace. Payment System ClickandBuy in Joomla 2.5 Virtuemart 2.0.xx Ecommerce Plugin Avinash Patel, 2013-09-11.
