Dinner with the Smileys Sarah Smiley, 2013-05-07 Fifty two guests take turns filling a military father's chair at his family's dinner table while he serves his yearlong deployment The week before Thanksgiving 2011 Dustin Smiley left for a yearlong military deployment Soon after his son Ford eleven invited Senator Susan Collins to fill his dad's chair at dinner On January 3 2012 Senator Collins came to dinner and brought brownies So began Dinner with the Smileys nationally syndicated columnist Sarah Smiley's fifty two week commitment to fill her husband's place at the family dinner table with interesting people from schoolteachers to Olympians professional athletes to famous authors comedians to politicians and unique role models for her three sons even as she knows Dustin's seat cannot truly be filled until he is home again for the fifty third dinner Why dinner Because dinnertime is often the loneliest time for people living alone If houses and apartments were like dollhouses with one side totally exposed Sarah says we'd see plenty of people eating alone to the glow of a television That was the fate Sarah feared for herself and her children during Dustin's absence So she opened her home and she and the kids sent invitations And they found that a surprising number of people really are available for dinner You just have to ask In a time when popular culture leads us to believe that the family dinner table is dead Dinner with the Smileys shows people that time spent with family friends and neighbors is still very much part of the American lifestyle Eat, Sleep, Innovate Scott D. Anthony, Paul Cobban, Natalie Painchaud, Andy Parker, 2020-10-20 From the author of The Little Black Book of Innovation a new guide for using the power of habit to build a culture of innovation Leaders have experimented with open innovation programs corporate accelerators venture capital arms skunkworks and innovation contests They've trekked to Silicon Valley Shenzhen and Tel Aviv to learn from today's hottest most successful tech companies Yet most would admit they've failed to create truly innovative cultures There's a better way And it all starts with the power of habit In Eat Sleep Innovate innovation expert Scott Anthony and his impressive team of coauthors use groundbreaking research in behavioral science to provide a first of its kind playbook for empowering individuals and teams to be their most curious and creative every single day Throughout the book the authors reveal a collection of BEANs behavior enablers artifacts and nudges they've collected from workplaces across the globe that will unleash the natural innovator inside everyone In addition to case studies of normal organizations doing extraordinary things they provide readers with the tools to create their own hacks and habits which they can then use to build and sustain their own models of a culture of innovation Fun lively and utterly unique Eat Sleep Innovate is the book you need to make innovation a natural and habitual act within your team or organization Focus On: 100 Most Popular American 3D Films Wikipedia contributors, Privacy in the Age of Big Data Theresa Payton, Ted Claypoole, 2023-03-15 A thorough update to a classic in the field of privacy and big data We have a global privacy problem The average person provides more information about themselves to more outsiders than any time in history Corporations governments and even our neighbors can know where we are at times can quickly learn our preferences and priorities and see who we meet The past decade has brought deep changes in the collection of our private information the regulation of that collection and in people's sensitivity to loss of privacy The nascent privacy threatening technology trends of a decade ago have blossomed into relentless data capturing systems that police and companies have come to rely on To address the expansion of personal data capture entire data regulatory regimes have arisen throughout the world with new regulations added each year People are more concerned regulators are more aggressive yet data collection continues to increase with consequences around the world Social media use has fragmented in the past five years spreading personal information over dozens of platforms Even most of our new televisions have started collecting second by second information about our households recently and some of those televisions can recognize the individuals watching and the devices they carry Amazon just activated a new worldwide network using bandwidth from personal wifi of Echo devices and Ring security systems The beat of new intrusions never seems to end These data trends are relentless and yet response to the pandemic accelerated them Rapid development of contactless everything became the norm Contact tracing apps became acceptable QR codes for everything from menus to contact information were created quickly Businesses are faced with hybrid in office and remote workforces More people are dependent on online and mobile technologies for food medicine and even human connection And each of these contacts can be captured somewhere and logged in a file for marketing or surveillance People want to keep their lives private but they don't know how The second edition of Privacy in the Age of Big Data addresses the significant advances in data driven technology their intrusion deeper in our lives the limits on data collection newly required by governments in North America and Europe and the new security challenges of world rife with ransomware and hacking This thoroughly updated edition demonstrates personal privacy vulnerabilities and shows ways to live a safer more private life Other privacy books tend to focus deeply on the evils of large tech companies or more academic and technical concerns But Privacy in the Age of Big Data second edition helps regular people understand the privacy threats and vulnerabilities in their daily lives and will provide solutions for maintaining better privacy while enjoying a modern life Unlike other books this one shows what you can do to make a difference to understand your current digital footprint and what you need to do to claw back your privacy and secure it in the future While PRIVACY IN THE AGE OF BIG DATA will have cross sectional appeal to many demographics working adults 25 60 and CEOs and Boards of businesses are the primary demographic young enough to know we need to do something to protect privacy and old enough to remember what happens when we haven't in the past With down to earth prose and examples pulled from daily life the writing style will attract buyers of all education levels Popular Mechanics, 2000-03 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Popular Mechanics, 2000-01 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips
