India's Bangladesh Problem Navine Murshid, 2023-04-06 An innovative analysis of the experience of Bengali Muslims on the Indian side of the India Bangladesh border

Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes, 2021-11-15 This new edition of the Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia The Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focusing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka This revised edition has been thoroughly updated and includes new chapters thus adding new areas of scholarship The Handbook is organized thematically into five major parts Historical formations and theoretical framings Law citizenship and the nation Representations of culture place identity Labor and the economy Inequality activism and the state The Handbook illustrates the ways in which scholarship on gender has contributed to a rethink of theoretical concepts and empirical understandings of contemporary South Asia Finally it focuses on new areas of inquiry that have been opened up through a focus on gender and the intersections between gender and categories such as caste ethnicity sexuality and religion This timely study is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives The Crises of Microcredit Isabelle

Guérin, Marc Labie, Jean-Michel Servet, 2015-10-15 Microcredit programmes long considered efficient development tools now face unprecedented crises in a number of countries Is this the end of microcredit or rather an essential step in its expansion Should we stop microcredit altogether or rethink the way it is implemented Drawing on extensive empirical research conducted in various parts of the world from Morocco to Senegal to India this important volume examines the whole chain of microcredit to provide the answers to these questions In doing so the authors highlight the diversity of crises both in intensity and in nature while also shedding light on a diversity of causes be it microcredit organizations unprepared for massive growth saturated local economies or greedy investors and shareholders attracted by profits Crucially the authors demonstrate that microcredit is not a monolithic project and the crises should also be analysed in the light of national histories and policies An original and necessary intervention in what has become one of the most contentious topics within the development world Who Gives to Whom? Reframing Africa in the Humanitarian Imaginary Cilas Kemedjio, Cecelia

Lynch, 2024-03-19 In this innovative volume experts from international relations anthropology sociology global public health postcolonial African literature and gender studies take up Ng g wa Thiong o s challenge to see how Africa gives to the west instead of the reverse Humanitarian assumptions are challenged by unpacking critical legacies from colonial and missionary genealogies to today s global networks of nongovernmental organizations NGOs Who Gives to Whom Reframing Africa in the Humanitarian Imaginary is a decolonial gesture that builds on Ng g s work as well as that of pan Africanist and intersectional feminist scholars Contributions range from assessing the impact of historical legacies of colonialism on gender religious secular attempts at saving Africans to South African unrealized project to reconfigure foreign policy frameworks shaped by apartheid Case studies of silver bullet solutions focus on the incorporation of women in peacebuilding microfinance and e waste disposal to argue that humanitarian interventions continue to mask ongoing forms of despoiling African well being while shortchanging intersectional African forms of agency Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Women's Economic Empowerment Inna Michaeli, 2022-01-03

Challenging the simplistic story by which feminism has become complicit in neoliberalism this book traces the course of globalization of women s economic empowerment from the Global South to the Global North and critically examines the practice of empowering low income women primarily migrant indigenous and racialised women The author argues that women s economic empowerment organizations become embedded in the neoliberal re organization of relations between civil society state and market and in the reconfiguration of relations between the personal and the political Also examined are the contractual nature of institutional arrangements in neoliberalism the ontological divide between economy and society and the marginalisation of feminist economics that persists in the field of women s economic empowerment The book will be of interest to scholars and students of social sciences gender studies sociology and economics This book is based on the author s doctoral dissertation at the Humboldt University of Berlin Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences Women

Entrepreneurs and Business Empowerment in Muslim Countries Minako Sakai,Amelia Fauzia,2022-09-26 This book analyzes women entrepreneurs in Muslim countries who are using Islamic values to develop and run small businesses As a core case study the authors are using Indonesia as it is the largest Muslim country in the world by population The project examines supportive policies and economic programs in detail and considers their effects on the businesses of several women entrepreneurs Additionally the authors argue that this work life balance is critical for the definition of a successful female Muslim entrepreneur The monograph considers whether this new phenomenon indicates a change in the conception of ideal Muslim womanhood or whether it is a limited phenomenon with few impacts beyond Indonesia The book will appeal to academic and practitioner audience interested in Islam gender studies Middle Eastern and South Asian politics development anthropology and social policy Individual and Social Adaptions to Human Vulnerability Donald C. Wood,2018-12-14 This volume celebrates the 40th anniversary of the Research in Economic Anthropology series presenting ten peer reviewed anthropological papers looking at human vulnerability the ways people attempt to cope with it and barriers to successfully overcoming it

Life Course, Work, and Labour in Global History Josef Ehmer,Carola Lentz,2023-09-18 This multidisciplinary volume offers unique perspectives across the globe and throughout the centuries on the complexity of the nexus between work and the life course For industrialized regions from Germany and Western Europe to China and Japan it questions the widespread notion of an overall growing working life course instability since the 1970s For unindustrialized or industrializing regions from West Africa to state socialist East Central Europe as well as for transnational and transcontinental labour migrations it shows the enormous influence of the extended family and wider kin on individual pathways into and out of work For early modern Europe India and China and up to twentieth century state socialism and to current welfare states it stresses and concretizes the crucial impact of age and gender for both societal labour relations and individual work related decision making With all chapters based on original research the volume reflects a close cooperation between historians anthropologists and sociologists Its multidisciplinary approach finds expression in its methodological plurality reaching from archival research and sophisticated statistical analyses to biographical interviews and participant observation This mix allows to grasp the interaction between societal change and individual agency The Political Economy of HIV in Africa Deborah Johnston,Kevin Deane,Matteo Rizzo,2018-10-18 Biomedical revolutions seem to have radically altered the environment for HIV transmission anti retrovirals ARVs and drugs to reduce mother to child transmission promise to cut HIV transmission rates as does male medical circumcision However the hopeful messages of UNAIDS are tempered with warning about expenditure shortfalls and calls for funding Contributions to this book remind us that along with the external financial constraints there have been new fractures in state power and in the organisation of health systems More than this the book fundamentally calls into question whether biomedical interventions can change the social roots of this disease As well as considering new policy approaches the book reasserts a long standing political economy approach to HIV and to adapt it to reflect new competing theoretical approaches The chapters attempt to connect the debates about HIV AIDS to larger discussions about globalisation class differentiation inequity and uneven development in African countries This book was originally published as a special issue of Review of African Political Economy

Financializations of Development Ève Chiapello, Anita Engels, Eduardo Gonçalves Gresse, 2023-04-20 Financializations of Development brings together cutting edge perspectives on socio political socio historical and institutional analyses of the evolving multiple and intertwined financialization processes of developmental institutions programs and policies In recent years the development landscape has seen a radical transformation in the partaking actors which have moved beyond just multilateral or bilateral public development banks and aid agencies The issue of financing for sustainable development is now at the top of the agenda for multilateral development actors Increasingly development institutions aim to include private actors and to lever in private money to support development projects Drawing on case studies conducted in Africa Asia Europe and Latin America this book examines the ways in which these private finance actors are enrolled and associated with the conception and implementation of development policies Beginning with a focus on global actors and private foundations this book considers the ways in which development funding is raised managed and distributed as well as debates at the center of global forums where financialized policies and solutions for development are conceived or discussed The book assembles empirical research on development programs and demonstrates the social consequences of the financializations of development to the people on the ground Highlighting the plurality of processes and outcomes of modern day relations tools actors and practices in financing development around the world this book is key reading for advanced students researchers and practitioners in all areas of finance development and sustainability Research Handbook on

Poverty and Inequality Udaya R. Wagle, 2023-05-09 Covering global comparative and single country contexts this Research Handbook presents wide ranging cutting edge research on poverty and inequality It maps out international trends in poverty and inequality and explores the key conceptual and operational frameworks practical analyses and policy applications and outcomes Credit to Capabilities Paromita Sanyal, 2014-12-11 Credit to Capabilities focuses on the controversial topic of microcredit s impact on women s empowerment and especially on the neglected question of how microcredit transforms women s agency Based on interviews with hundreds of economically and socially vulnerable women from peasant households this book highlights the role of the associational mechanism forming women into groups that are embedded in a vast network and providing the opportunity for face to face participation in group meetings in improving women s capabilities This book reveals the role of microcredit groups in fostering women s social capital particularly their capacity of organizing collective action for public goods and for protecting women s welfare It argues that in the Indian context microcredit groups are becoming increasingly important in rural civil societies Throughout the book maintains an analytical distinction between married women in male headed households and women in female headed households in discussing the potentials and the limitations of microcredit s social and economic impacts

Gender and Economics in Muslim Communities Ebru Kongar, Jennifer C. Olmsted, Elora Shehabuddin, 2017-08-25 Bringing together feminist analyses of economic processes and outcomes with feminist critiques of Orientalism this book examines the diverse economic realities facing women in a range of Muslim communities This approach pays special attention to the role of Islam in economic analyses of gender equality and women s well being in Muslim communities while at the same time challenging biased and inaccurate accounts that essentialize Islam Nuanced case studies conducted in Bangladesh Iran Israel Nigeria and Turkey illustrate the historical and institutional diversity of Muslim communities and draw vivid pictures of the everyday economic lives of Muslim women in these communities These studies are complemented by quantitative analyses that extend beyond inserting Islam as a dummy variable The contributions represent a wide range of disciplines including anthropology economics gender studies political science psychology and sociology By placing critiques of Orientalist scholarship in direct dialogue with scholarship on economic development in Muslim contexts this diverse collection illustrates how different methods and frameworks can work together to provide a better understanding of gender equality and women s well being in Muslim contexts In doing so the authors aim to facilitate conversations among feminist scholars across disciplines in order to provide a more nuanced picture of the situation facing women in Muslim communities This book was originally published as a special issue of Feminist Economics

The Capability Approach and the Sustainable Development Goals Brian Vincent Ikejiaku, 2024-07-26 This book demonstrates how the capability approach to human development can contribute to the realisation of the 2015 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs The capability approach dictates that success should not be measured by economic indicators but by people leading meaningful free fulfilled happy or satisfied lives Drawing from a range of disciplinary perspectives this book argues that it is vital that the focus for the SDGs should shift to benefiting the most vulnerable Case studies from across Asia Africa Latin America Global South and the United States the United Kingdom and Australia Global North consider how the capability approach can contribute as a practical framework to achieving the SDGs ambitions for social economic political and legal progress Drawing on insights from a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers and practitioners from the fields of law politics international relations criminology international development sociology public policy area studies and others
