for Teaching 21st-Century Competencies and the Impact of Digitalization Dhir, Harpreet Kaur,2021-06-25 The need to develop 21st century competencies has received global recognition but instructional methods have not been reformed to include the teaching of these skills Multiple frameworks include creativity critical thinking communication and collaboration as the foundational competencies Complexities of planning curriculum and delivering instruction to develop the foundational competencies requires professional training However despite training instructional practice can be impacted by barriers caused by personal views of teachers economic constraints access to resources social challenges pandemic overwhelming pace of global shifts and other influences With digitalization entering the field of education it is unclear if technology has helped in removing or eliminating the barriers or has itself become another obstruction in integrating the competencies

Gaining an educator's perspective is essential to understanding the barriers as well as solutions to mitigate the impediments through innovative instructional methods being practiced across the globe via digital or non digital platforms. The need for original contributions from educators exists in this area of barriers to 21st century education and the role of digitalization. The Handbook of Research on Barriers for Teaching 21st Century Competencies and the Impact of Digitalization discusses teaching the 21st century competencies namely critical thinking, creativity, collaboration, and communication. This book presents both the problems or gaps causing barriers and brings forth practical solutions, digital and non digital, to meet the educational shifts. The chapters will determine the specific barriers that exist, whether political, social, economic, or technological, to integrating competencies and the methods or strategies that can eliminate these barriers through compatible instructional approaches. Additionally, the chapters provide knowledge on the impacts of digitalization in general on teaching and learning and how digital innovations are either beneficial to removing impediments for students or rather causing obstructions in integrating the four competencies. This book is ideally intended for educators and administrators working directly with students, educational researchers, educational software developers, policymakers, teachers, practitioners, and students interested in how 21st century competencies can be taught while facing the impacts of digitalization on education.

Honour Based Crimes and the Law Mukaddes

Gorar,2021-05-10 Honour based violence and abuse manifests itself in different forms and this book offers a comprehensive understanding of this phenomenon This book argues that the limits of honour crimes must be defined more widely so that they include conducts and behaviours that originate from the patriarchal notion of honour such as honour based oppression and breast ironing The book provides a critical analysis and synthesis of the law in England and Wales and in the international human rights sphere The relevant domestic legislation and cases are examined to reflect on whether adequate protection is provided for the victims and potential victims of honour based violence and abuse Since honour based violence is a violation of human rights the relevant international human rights law is examined to illustrate the perception of such crimes in the international arena The effectiveness of any remedy for victims of honour based violence and abuse depends on its capability to change deep rooted behaviours in communities with honour based patriarchal values This book argues that the law does not provide the effective impact required in part due to patriarchal structures and that more efforts should be dedicated to changes in education It is held that there is a need for an educational programme that is especially designed to tackle violence and promote gender equality The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Human Rights Law Criminal Law and Gender Studies
