House & Garden Fifties House Catriona Gray, 2014-10-13 The post war consumer boom of the 1950s coupled with a desire for new innovative design resulted in one of the most exciting decades in the history of interiors a visual revolution that was captured on the pages of British House

Garden In Fifties House mid century modern enthusiast Catriona Gray has drawn on the magazine's peerless archive curating the best illustrations and photographs to show how the use of colour pattern homewares and furniture evolved through the decade The homes of key tastemakers are featured including Le Corbusier Gi Ponti Terence Conran and Hans and Florence Knoll The first title in the new Decades of Design series House Garden Fifties House is required reading for mid century modern enthusiasts collectors and decorators in search of inspiration from the most influential homes of the past

Ideal homes, 1918-39 Deborah Sugg Ryan, 2018-03-06 This book explores the aspirations and tastes of new suburban communities in interwar England for domestic architecture and design that was both modern and nostalgic in a period where homeownership became the norm It investigates the ways in which new suburban class and gender identities were forged through the architecture design and decoration of the home in choices such as ebony elephants placed on mantelpieces and modern Easiwork dressers in kitchens Ultimately it argues that a specifically suburban modernism emerged which looked backwards to the past whilst looking forward to the future Thus the inter war ideal home was both a retreat from the outside world and a site of change and experimentation The book also examines how the interwar home is lived in today It will appeal to academics and students in design social and cultural history as well as a wider readership curious about interwar homes

House & Garden Sixties House Catriona Gray, House & Garden, 2016-03-09 From Pop art to Op art plastic furniture to bubble gum paint colours the Sixties saw a new wave of interior design that was closely linked to popular culture and fashion becoming increasingly youth oriented and playful to appeal to the new generation of baby boomers In Sixties House mid century modern enthusiast Catriona Gray has drawn on the magazine's peerless archive curating the best illustrations and photographs to show how the use of colour pattern homewares and furniture evolved through the decade The homes of key tastemakers are featured including Bridget Riley Mary Quant David Mlinaric Barbara Hulanicki of Biba and David Bailey The second title in the new Decades of Design series House Garden Sixties House is required reading for mid century modern enthusiasts collectors and decorators in search of inspiration from the most influential homes of the past Mid-Century

Modern Bradley Quinn, 2006-10-01 The 1950's house was a scientific triumph designed in a laboratory and tested on inhabitants of all ages before being built for the masses Never had homes been so thoroughly contemporary with antiques and period styles entirely banished Mid Century Modern explores the interior decor of this seminal decade concentrating on all aspects of a home's decoration walls flooring surfaces lighting and of course furniture Case studies examine beautiful present day homes that exhibit mid century style in an exemplary way and suggest ideas for taking the 1950's look complete with collector's pieces and mixing and matching it with elements from other eras Spaces of the Cinematic Home Eleanor Andrews, Stella Hockenfull, Fran Pheasant-Kelly, 2015-07-24 This book examines the ways in which the house appears in films and the modes by which it moves beyond being merely a backdrop for action Specifically it explores the ways that domestic spaces carry inherent connotations that filmmakers exploit to enhance meanings and pleasures within film Rather than simply examining the representation of the house as national symbol auteur trait or in terms of genre contributors study various rooms in the domestic sphere from an assortment of time periods and from a diversity of national cinemas from interior spaces in ancient Rome to the Chinese kitchen from the animated house to the metaphor of the armchair in film noir
