Midway Mitsuo Fuchida, Masatake Okumiya, 2001 This landmark study was first published in English by the Naval Institute in 1955 and was added to the Classics of Naval Literature series in 1992 Widely acknowledged for its valuable Japanese insights into the battle that turned that tide of war in the Pacific the book has made a great impact on American readers over the years Two Japanese naval aviators who participated in the operation provide an unsparing analysis of what caused Japan's staggering defeat Mitsuo Fuchida who led the first air strike on Pearl Harbor commanded the Akagi carrier air group and later made a study of the battle at the Japanese Naval War College Masatake Okumiya one of Japan's first dive bomber pilots was aboard the light carrier Ryujo and later served as a staff officer in a carrier division Armed with knowledge of top secret documents destroyed by the Japanese and access to private papers they show the operation to be ill conceived and poorly planned and executed and fault their flag officers for lacking initiative leadership and clear thinking With an introduction by an author known for his study of the battle from the American perspective the work continues to make a significant contribution to World War II literature

Midway Mitsuo Fuchida, 1965 Indomitable Will Charles Kupfer, 2012-04-05 Some of the worst military disasters in U S history occurred between Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 and the Battle of Midway in June 1942 During this period the American people faced a barrage of bad news and accounts of defeats and retreats Yet if they were shocked and dismayed they showed little panic Indomitable Will resurrects the legacy of this first half year of American combat during WWII a legacy of pain but not of woe Historian Charles Kupfer recounts the story of the war's early defeats Bataan Corregidor Wake Island and the Java Sea Some of these battles remain evocative today others are obscure all were catastrophes for American arms Kupfer asserts however that later victories were made inevitable by the steeling effect of those initial disasters Weaving together military journalistic political and cultural histories this engaging book shows that by setting their collective will on victory Americans in and out of uniform gained strength from their setbacks Indomitable Will spells out how the nation turned early defeat into ultimate victory

Anatomy of Victory John D. Caldwell, 2018-11-09 This groundbreaking book provides the first systematic comparison of America's modern wars and why they were won or lost John D Caldwell uses the World War II victory as the historical benchmark for evaluating the success and failure of later conflicts Unlike WWII the Korean Vietnam and Iraqi Wars were limited but they required enormous national commitments produced no lasting victories and generated bitter political controversies Caldwell comprehensively examines these four wars through the lens of a strategic architecture to explain how and why their outcomes were so dramatically different He defines a strategic architecture as an interlinked set of continually evolving policies strategies and operations by which combatant states work toward a desired end Policy defines the high level goals a nation seeks to achieve once it initiates a conflict or finds itself drawn into one Policy makers direct a broad course of action and strive to control the initiative When they make decisions they have to respond to unforeseen conditions to guide and determine future decisions Effective leaders are skilled at organizing constituencies they need to succeed and communicating to them convincingly Strategy means employing whatever resources are available to achieve policy goals in situations that are dynamic as conflicts change quickly over time Operations are the actions that occur when politicians soldiers and diplomats execute plans A strategic architecture Caldwell argues is thus not a static blueprint but a dynamic vision of how a state can succeed or fail in a conflict Midway, the Battle that Doomed Japan Mitsuo Fuchida,1957
