Transnational Migration and Human Security Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, 2011-06-07 The volume places the migration development security nexus in the field of transnational studies Rather than treating these three categories as self evident the essays excavate aspects of power and privilege built into their governing frameworks and conflicting rationales apparent in practices of control Bringing together diverse experiences and case studies the volume highlights the problematic nature of maintaining distinct and disconnected frameworks of governance It argues for a new approach that demonstrates the significance and usefulness of comparative ethics in conceptualising migration from a human centered and gendered perspective in order to address the multi faceted and multi dimensional nature and meanings of security

Education in the School of Dreams Jennifer Lynn Peterson, 2013-05-22 In the earliest years of cinema travelogues were a staple of variety film programs in commercial motion picture theaters These short films also known as scenics depicted tourist destinations and exotic landscapes otherwise inaccessible to most viewers Scenics were so popular that they were briefly touted as the future of film But despite their pervasiveness during the early twentieth century travelogues have been overlooked by film historians and critics In Education in the School of Dreams Jennifer Lynn Peterson recovers this lost archive Through innovative readings of travelogues and other nonfiction films exhibited in the United States between 1907 and 1915 she offers fresh insights into the aesthetic and commercial history of early cinema and provides a new perspective on the intersection of American culture imperialism and modernity in the nickelodeon era Peterson describes the travelogue s characteristic form and style and demonstrates how imperialist ideologies were realized and reshaped through the moving image She argues that although educational films were intended to legitimate filmgoing for middle class audiences travelogues were not simply vehicles for elite ideology As a form of instructive entertainment these technological moving landscapes were both formulaic and also wondrous and dreamlike Considering issues of spectatorship and affect Peterson argues that scenics produced and disrupted viewers complacency about their own place in the world

Cosmopolitanism and the Postnational , 2015-08-17 In recent years postnational theory has become a primary tool for the analysis of European integration Though interpretations of the concept vary there is a wide consensus about postnationalism as a way to forge a European identity beyond a particular national history In line with the German historical context in which this key concept was formulated in the first place postnationalism is considered to be an adaptation of Kantian cosmopolitanism to the conditions of the modern world This collection of essays is the first to systematically and comparatively explore the links between postnationalism and cosmopolitanism within the context of the New Europe Contributors Susana Ara jo Sibylle Baumbach Helena Buescu John Crosetti Maria DiBattista C sar Dom nguez Soren Frank Birgit Mara Kaiser Dorothy Odartey Wellington Maria Esteves Pereira Karen Margrethe Simonsen Aysegul Turan The Night Sky Robin Nelson,2017-08-01 Audisee eBooks with Audio combine professional narration and text highlighting for an engaging read aloud experience Every month a cycle happens in the sky Read about the patterns of the moon and how it changes throughout each month Negotiating Identities in Nordic Migrant Narratives Pia Lane,Bjørghild Kjelsvik,Annika Bøstein Myhr,2022-02-15 This edited volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to the question of how identities are negotiated and a sense of belonging established in a world of increasing migration and diversity Transcending field specific approaches and differences in foci the authors investigate how identity is constructed and mediated in face to face interactions in real time and fictional writing how writers use narratives to express their reorientation and their identity negotiation in a new homeland and how material objects convey layered meaning to identity and belonging This engagement with spoken written and material mediation of identity resonates with recent sociolinguistic investigations on how language is connected to and intersects with embodiment materiality and time The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of globalisation and migration studies sociolinguistics and narrative analysis anthropology and cultural studies Earth's Water Cycle Robin Nelson,2017-08-01 From lakes to clouds to rain that falls back to Earth discover how water changes through various processes to form the water cycle I Notice Animals in Fall Mari Schuh,2016-08-01 In fall animals prepare for a long cold winter Readers will learn how squirrels bears geese and butterflies change and get ready for winter This book encourages readers to observe the world around them and identify those things in nature that point to changing seasons Through imagery and text readers will observe many different animals as they migrate hibernate and navigate the changing seasons Seasons Robin Nelson,2017-08-01 Winter spring summer and fall the seasons are one of natures most familiar cycles But why does the weather change Learn why weather patterns change over the seasons Migrating Through the Web Nicole Braid,2022-03-07 How to study a media object on the web that is at the same time a documentary a reportage and a game which combines both fiction and non fiction elements Nicole Braid digs into the discursive and material structures and infrastructures of serious games text adventures newsgames interactive maps and data visualizations in which refugees and migrants become the subject of humanitarian discourse Although the goal is to arouse empathy towards migrants these interactive practices distinguish who is vulnerable and who is not It supports the idea of a migratory crisis which the author argues is actually the symptom of a deeper crisis of the humanitarian system itself Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume II) Florence Labaune-Demeule,2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices Displacement also entails displacement as well as dislocation or chaos This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority auctoritas has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view Volume Two Exploring American Shores includes essays on the place of famous fugitives in American culture notably through the story of Bonnie and Clyde as well as on the links between displacement authority and sculpture on the one hand Placing and Replacing the Capitol Sculptures and on the links between displacement and photography on the other through a study of Joel Sternfeld's Walking the High Line In addition to investigations of Louise Erdrich's novel Books and Islands in Ojibwe Country Canadian landscapes in transit will be studied to highlight the displacement of the Western landscape tradition in English Canada The volume concludes with a study of some literary works by several writers of Guyanese origin first with an essay comparing Martin Carter's and L. On Gontran Damas's literary productions and then with an essay devoted to Fred D. Aguiar's novel The Longest Memory 1994 The Collected Non-Fiction George Orwell, 2017-03-09 The twelve edited volumes of Orwell's non-fiction collected for the first time in one invaluable ebook A rich treasure trove of material this unique collection includes Orwell's reviews broadcasts notebooks wartime diaries articles on socialism and censorship correspondence with luminaries such as Arthur Koestler Anthony Powell and Evelyn Waugh and famous essays such as Politics and the English Language Why I Write and Some Thoughts on the Common Toad Edited by Professor Peter Davison the collection encompasses twelve annotated volumes and ranges across the whole of Orwell's writing life from 1903 to 1950 As well as providing an unparalleled insight into Orwell's life and works the volume offers a wonderful overview of the social literary and political events of the thirties and forties It will be an invaluable resource for fans students and scholars alike Contents A Kind of Compulsion 1903 36 Facing Unpleasant Facts 1937 39 A Patriot After All 1940 41 All Propaganda is Lies 1941 42 Keeping Our Little Corner Clean 1942 43 Two Wasted Years 1943 I Have Tried to Tell the Truth 1943 44 I Belong to the Left 1945 Smothered Under Journalism 1946 It is What I Think 1947 48 Our Job is to Make Life Worth Living 1949 50 The Lost Orwell
