DiNapoli Lisa Gabriele,2010-05-07 Our house in Little Italy shared a wall with the Rossis next door and our clothesline connected with the Pilettis behind us My mother used to say that if one of the neighbours houses was swallowed up by hell we would all be pulled down with them Smart witty and emotionally generous Tempting Faith DiNapoli is first time novelist Lisa Gabriele s alternately wrenching and funny coming of age story about a girl who is born with a powerful faith a faith that is sorely tested across the difficult years of her childhood and adolescence Bewildered by her lot as the daughter in a fundamentally and often hilariously dysfunctional family Faith genuinely wants to be a good Catholic girl And she s pretty sure Jesus loves her Trouble is she s angry Angry with her father for leaving her mom for never going anywhere and her siblings just because they re around So Faith lies She cheats and she steals In fact she breaks every commandment on the list mostly by accident And in the process Faith finds herself increasingly torn between the girl she and Jesus want her to be and the girl she just plain happens to be Lisa Gabriele writes with rare confidence and insight Her sure handed narrative hums along on the charged rhythms of Faith s poignant quest for her own private happy ending Charming fresh and big hearted Tempting Faith DiNapoli is a novel that will stay with readers long after the last page has been turned Women's Fiction

Deborah Philips,2014-06-19 Now in its second edition and with new chapters covering such texts as Elizabeth Gilbert s Eat Pray Love and yummy mummy novels such as Allison Pearson s I Don t Know How She Does It this is a wide ranging survey of popular women s fiction from 1945 to the present Examining key trends in popular writing for women in each decade Women s Fiction offers case study readings of major British and American writers Through these readings the book explores how popular texts often neglected by feminist literary criticism have charted the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of women in the 20th and 21st centuries Indianapolis Monthly ,2002-11 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape Women's Fiction 1945-2005 Deborah Philips,2007-11-01 Organised around each decade of the post war period this book analyses novels written by and for women from 1945 to the present Each chapter identifies a specific genre in popular fiction for women which marked that period and provides case studies focusing on writers and texts which enjoyed a wide readership Despite their popularity these novels remain largely outside the canon of women s writing and are often unacknowledged by feminist literary criticism However these texts clearly touched a nerve with a largely female readership and so offer a means of charting the changes in ideals of femininity and in the tensions and contradictions in gender identities in the post war period Their analysis offers new insights into the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of what a woman could and should be over the last half century Through her analysis of women s writing and reading Philips sets out to challenge the distinction between popular and literary fiction arguing that neat categories such as popular middle brow and serious fiction need more careful definition Kiss Carlo Adriana
