Author Fictions Ingo Berensmeyer, 2023-10-04 Fictional novelists and other author characters have been a staple of novels and stories from the early nineteenth century onwards What is it that attracts authors to representing their own kind in fiction Author Fictions addresses this question from a theoretical and historical perspective Narrative representations of literary authorship not only reflect the aesthetic convictions and social conditions of their actual authors or their time they also take an active part in negotiating and shaping these conditions The book unfolds the history of such author fictions in European and North American texts since the early nineteenth century as a literary history of literary authorship ranging from the Victorian bildungsroman to contemporary autofiction It combines rhetorical and sociological approaches to answer the question how literature makes authors Identifying author fictions as narratives that address the fragile material conditions of literary creation in the actual and symbolic economies of production Ingo Berensmeyer explores how these texts elaborate and manipulate concepts and models of authorship This book will be relevant to English American and comparative literary studies and to anyone interested in the topic of literary authorship

This Life Martin Hagglund, 2019-03-05 Winner of the Ren Wellek Prize Named a Best Book of the Year by The Guardian The Millions and The Sydney Morning Herald A profound original and accessible book that offers a new secular vision of how we can lead our lives Ranging from fundamental existential questions to the most pressing social issues of our time This Life shows why our commitment to freedom and democracy should lead us beyond both religion and capitalism In this groundbreaking book the philosopher Martin H gglund challenges our received notions of faith and freedom The faith we need to cultivate he argues is not a religious faith in eternity but a secular faith devoted to our finite life together He shows that all spiritual questions of freedom are inseparable from economic and material conditions What ultimately matters is how we treat one another in this life and what we do with our time together H gglund develops new existential and political principles while transforming our understanding of spiritual life His critique of religion takes us to the heart of what it means to mourn our loved ones be committed and care about a sustainable world His critique of capitalism demonstrates that we fail to sustain our democratic values because our lives depend on wage labor In clear and pathbreaking terms H gglund explains why capitalism is inimical to our freedom and why we should instead pursue a novel form of democratic socialism In developing his vision of an emancipated secular life H gglund engages with great philosophers from Aristotle to Hegel and Marx literary writers from Dante to Proust and Knausgaard political economists from Mill to Keynes and Hayek and religious thinkers from Augustine to Kierkegaard and Martin Luther King Jr This Life gives us new access to our past for the sake of a different future

The Embarrassment of Being Human Benjamin Boysen,2024-12-24 With the message that everything in a sense is alive thus allowing us to join forces with new politico ethical communities stretching across human and nonhuman realms the new materialisms have captivated the minds of many academics artists and intellectuals by stressing that it is time to return to a premodern mindset and discard modernity and its concepts of secularization autonomy and finitude The Embarrassment of Being Human not only demonstrates how these magical materialisms are beset by grave theoretical and practical inconsistencies and self contradictions It also demonstrates how their demand for humans to step down and allow for an emancipation of things qualifies the new materialisms as a metaphysics of neoliberalism that reproduces and fortifies the self contradictions rampant in the current neoliberal hegemony While helping us to gain a comprehensive understanding of the tenets of the eerie ills of our epoch the critique of the new materialisms can furthermore inspire us to appreciate how the exact inversion of the new materialist complex amounts to a revitalization of the modern project A revitalization that is critical to think our epoch differently
